Global Metropolitan John R. Short, 2004 Global Metropolitan John Rennie-Short, 2013-01-11 Exploring the connections between globalization and urbanization this notable book places particular emphasis on understanding the economic function of global cities the political process of globalizing cities and the cultural significance of cosmopolitan cities The book explores the meaning of the globalizing project in cities the maintaining securing and increasing of urban economic competitiveness in a global world the reimagining of the city the rewriting of the city for both internal and external audiences the construction of new spaces and the hosting of new events Specific chapters look at the significance of signature architects the hosting of the Summer Olympics and the role of the super rich The main thesis of the book is that this discourse of globalizing is a major force in the restructuring of cities around the world Indo-Pacific Smart Megacity System T. M. Vinod Kumar, 2023-12-18 This book is an in depth study of the Indo Pacific region for effective interventions in the megacities system First based on several criteria the region is identified as homogeneous country groupings of diversity a multi polar spatial system and as program regions of QUAD and I2U2 for action programs and investment transcending many nations but mostly the ocean space of the Indo Pacific connecting all megacities sub regions spatially and functionally Then the megacities with problems and prospects for economic integration are studied from the point of view of regional economics and international trade and finally the rural urban interface with case studies of selected countries is presented Prospects of systems of megacities and individual megacities for regional economies are designed Existing interconnections through rail air and ocean of megacity systems their capacity performance and potential are analyzed for emerging issues International trade among the megacity systems countries with emerging issues and barriers are presented The mobility of money goods and services among the systems of megacities is analyzed Rule based diplomacy and other emerging options are discussed to sustain the above calls for a study of the Security of the Indo Pacific region Finally the emerging architecture for megacity system governance is also presented Out of 21 megacities in the Indo Pacific an in depth study of a few in India and Japan in the Indo Pacific region for effective economic interventions in the megacities system at the city level was studied COVID 19 has affected most of the countries in the Indo Pacific With a contraction of GDP and a GDP growth rate negative the number below the poverty level increased Foreign Direct Investment is not forthcoming in any of these countries Job creation becomes a priority in addition to public health concerns connected with COVID 19

Headquarters Economy J. Myles Shaver, 2018-10-18 Metropolitan areas with a high concentration of headquarters from diverse industries stand out as influential dynamic economies However there is little discussion about the characteristics of these headquarters economies Why do some regions develop vibrant headquarters economies whereas others do not The answer lies in understanding the essence of headquarters the managerial talent pool that guides and governs these companies By investigating an exemplar headquarters economy Minneapolis St Paul this volume demonstrates that the talent pool managers its movement among companies and industries in a region mobility and the nature of its inflow and outflow from a region migration can create a virtuous cycle that strengthens regional companies and draws in additional talent Comparing the migration pattern of educated high earning individuals across metropolitan areas in the United States and drawing upon a proprietary survey of thousands of headquarters employees in Minneapolis St Paul this book provides supportive evidence for this dynamic A central insight of the research is that professional managerial talent is a determinant of regional vitality that has largely been overlooked The underlying factors of managers mobility and migration here identified in the context of Minneapolis St Paul exist in metropolitan areas around the world demonstrating the scope of application of the research findings and highlighting the benefit of focusing on these underlying factors

Inter and Intra Government Arrangements for Productivity Arie Halachmi, Peter B. Boorsma, 1998 Papers originally presented at a 1995 conference concentrate on academic thinking about the applicability of PA concepts to administrative theory building Emphasizing that Principal Agent PA theory is a powerful conceptual framework because of the economic focus on transactions between principals and agents they discuss issues such as information asymmetry across government constituents political diplomatic considerations and the narrow focus of PA problems Attention is also given to citizen demands internal markets franchising competitive procurement and contracting in Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Sustainable Development and Planning X G. Passerini, N. Marchettini, 2018-12-17 This volume contains research from the 10th International Conference on Sustainable Development and Planning The papers included in this volume form a collection of research from academics policy makers practitioners and other stakeholders from across the globe who discuss the latest advances in the field Problems related to development and planning which affect rural and urban areas are present in all regions of the world Accelerated urbanisation has resulted in deterioration of the environment and loss of quality of life Urban development can also aggravate problems faced by rural areas such as forests mountain regions and coastal areas amongst many others Taking into consideration the interaction between different regions and developing new methodologies for monitoring planning and implementation of novel strategies can offer solutions for mitigating environmental pollution and non sustainable use of available resources Energy saving and eco friendly building approaches have become an important part of modern development which places special emphasis on resource optimisation Planning has a key role to play in ensuring that these solutions as well as new materials and processes are incorporated in the most efficient manner The application of new academic findings to planning and development strategies assessment tools and decision making processes are all covered in this book

Managing Global Risks in the Urban Age Yee-Kuang Heng, 2016-03-03 The first full length exposition of what it terms a global city global risks nexus this volume crosses disciplinary boundaries to draw upon research from Security Studies Geography Sociology and Urban Studies Innovative in its approach integrating theories about Global Cities with those positing a Global Risk Society Yee Kuang Heng positions this research in the midst of two concurrent global trends that will gain more significance in coming years The world is experiencing the consequences of not only rapid globalisation but also urbanization In 2008 the UN declared that more than half the world's population was now urban At the same time highly connected global cities like New York London Tokyo and Singapore also face rapidly spreading global risks such as pandemics and financial crises Unique in developing a typology of global risks that threaten a global city like Singapore beyond its Asian focus the book also draws out thematic and policy lessons pertinent to other global cities Global cities do not simply materialize They are dependent on a range of stakeholders at various levels that produce and re produce its command and control capabilities in the face of global risks Singapore's experiences managing global risks in the financial aviation and maritime domains are common concerns shared by many countries and cities that have or aspire to develop similar critical infrastructure Global Forum on Regional

Development Policy, 1999 The Political Economy of City Branding Ari-Veikko Anttiroiko, 2014-02-24 Globalization affects urban communities in many ways One of its manifestations is increased intercity competition which compels cities to increase their attractiveness in terms of capital entrepreneurship information expertise and consumption This competition takes place in an asymmetric field with cities trying to find the best possible ways of using their natural and created assets the latter including a naturally evolving reputation or consciously developed competitive identity or brand The Political Economy of City Branding discusses this phenomenon from the perspective of numerous post industrial cities in North America Europe East Asia and Australasia Special attention is given to local economic development policy and industrial profiling and global city rankings are used to provide empirical evidence for cities characteristics and positions in the global urban hierarchy On top of this social and urban challenges such as creative class struggle are also discussed The core message of the book is that cities should apply the tools of city branding in their industrial promotion and specialization but at the same time take into account the special nature of their urban communities and be open and inclusive in their brand policies in order to ensure optimal results This book will be of interest to scholars and practitioners working in the areas of local economic development urban planning public management and branding Arte-polis 3 International Conference

, 2010 Metropolitan Regions Johan Klaesson, Börje Johansson, Charlie Karlsson, 2013-06-05 Metropolitan growth has been dramatic in the past several decades and today metropolitan regions are recognized as the main driving forces in national growth and development as well as in national and global innovation processes The purpose of this book is to contribute to a better understanding of how metropolitan regions and their subsystems interact and compete why they differ in their capacity to nurture innovation and growth and how metropolitan policies must be designed to secure the region's long term vitality To that end it presents new contributions on theories of urban growth institutions and policies of urban change and case studies of urban growth prepared by international experts Fair Play - Art, Performance and Neoliberalism J. Harvie, 2013-08-29 This book asks what is the quality of participation in contemporary art and performance

Has it been damaged by cultural policies which have entrepreneurialized artists cut arts funding and cultivated corporate philanthropy Has it been fortified by crowdfunding pop ups and craftsmanship And how can it help us to understand social welfare

Global Cities - Metropolitan Cultures Barbara Hahn, Meike Zwingenberger, 2011 Globalization and urban networks are not a new phenomenon but have gained momentum since the 1980s The domination of capital over labor the restructuring of employment the polarization of class division and political conflicts have created an urban hierarchy with cities like Tokyo Los Angeles San Francisco New York London and Paris at the top However smaller cities located in the semi periphery form important links in the global network as well In this volume authors with backgrounds in different fields of research such as geography sociology history and political science look at global cities from various angles The hierarchy of global cities and the restructuring process within global cities public policy and urban politics the rising vulnerability urban governance the political sector in Washington DC the assimilation of different migrant populations and the culture of Dancehall Reggae are being discussed
