Clark II, Grant Cooke, 2014-11-26 The new green industrial revolution is driven by a variety of global environmental concerns In some regions it is spurred by the scarcity of cheap affordable renewable energy that will also lead to a reduced reliance on fossil fuel in the production of power In others it is driven by a need to reduce greenhouse gas GHG emissions from power generation This book provides a comprehensive review of the most popular green disruptive technologies in energy production as well as their economic impact In addition the book includes a multitude of international case studies where these technologies are currently deployed and their economic impact on the region Clearly explains the scientific engineering technological and economics driving the Green Revolution in power generation A guide to technologies such as renewable energy smart green grids and emission control technologies Packed with international case studies that provides real world examples of how these technologies are currently being deployed around the world Explains the economic impact which these new technologies will play in building global sustainability Qualitative Economics Woodrow W. Clark II, Michael Fast, 2019-10-08 This book provides a new paradigm of economics that is called Qualitative Economics The authors take an approach to economics that is entirely different from the established neo classical economics paradigm Arguing that the basis of neo classical economic theory with its focus on perfect information in a balanced equilibrium system of supply and demand is fundamentally flawed the authors propose an inclusive philosophical and scientific perspective to explain economic structures and activities and how best to understand the dynamics of economics Furthermore the authors argue that a qualitative approach allows for greater understanding of not only the actors actions and situations in economics but also defines the context in which the more traditional quantitative and statistical methods are applied The book includes case studies to further illustrate the applications of qualitative economics Challenging orthodox paradigms and schools of economic thought the book proposes a new way of looking at economics and as such will be of use to researchers and students of economics business social sciences and the sciences as well as think tanks and advocacy groups interested in heterodox economics Smart Green Cities Woodrow Clark II, Grant Cooke, 2016-03-10 Smart Green Cities is a comprehensive overview of what global cities are doing to become sustainable Woodrow W Clark II and Grant Cooke have produced a book that is both practical and visionary They have examined the infrastructure needs sustainable development communications energy water waste and transportation to develop guidelines processes and best practices City leaders are key to mitigating climate change who must plan design and implement solutions Smart Green Cities SGC offers a global perspective that includes implementing the Green Industrial Revolution the title of their last book SGC discusses innovative emerging technologies and the new economics paradigm that move beyond the out dated neo classical economics The authors present examples from around the world including Europe the U S China and the Middle East which discuss the best green technologies from renewable energy power generation to smart on site grid development The extraordinary shift from a rural to an urban world is described national plans are analyzed so that future cities will be designed built and implemented now not 50 years from now The struggle for the planet s survival is being waged by the world s cities Clark and Cooke argue that cities are the key to mitigating climate change and reducing toxic greenhouse gas emissions SGC introduces sustainable technologies discusses the economics for implementing the solutions and offers numerous examples to serve as pathways for cities to become smart green and thus carbon neutral

Security in International Climate Policy Zehra Askinsena Ilkic, 2024-11-18 The impacts of climate change are increasingly felt worldwide affecting every country regardless of geographical location Over the past 50 years numerous treaties have been produced that are aimed at combatting climate change However these international efforts have often been hindered by the actions of great powers prioritising their own interests over global solutions Since security is one of the most determining factors in states decision making Security in International Climate Policy analyses the relationship between states security policies and their efforts against climate change The book hypothesises that security policies negatively affect measures against climate change While the security policies of great powers pose a hurdle for a successful climate policy in the first stages of efforts there is a shift in the 21st century when climate change itself begins to threaten the security of states Based on these findings the author predicts future policy trends and makes policy recommendations

Sustainable Mega City Communities Woodrow W. Clark II, 2021-06-08 Sustainable Mega City Communities scrutinizes the challenges encountered when designing planning and constructing sustainable megacities Chapters explain the role of national and local governments for the strategic planning development implementation monitoring and enforcement of standards of water air food and products used by the community Other chapters cover Water Delivery Systems Sanitation and Waste Disposal Systems Power Systems and Public Health Systems new green technologies practices and standards predicated by the need for sustainable office building and housing Provides an in depth look at critical infrastructural systems charting problems and providing possible solutions Addresses new green technologies practices and standards predicated by the need for sustainable office building and housing Explains the role of national and local governments for strategic planning development implementation monitoring and enforcement
