Gis And Geocomputation Innovations In Gis 7:

GIS and GeoComputation Peter Atkinson, 2000-06-21 Geographic Information Systems are computer based systems for geographic analysis They have been developed over the past twenty five years and are now widely used A recent research direction has been the development of geocomputation representing computer based geographical analysis beyond the traditional bounds of GIS In geocomputation the computer is the research environment itself not merely a tool A key to geocomputation is that highly powered computing can be used with sufficient data to avoid traditional parametric approaches altogether The term geocomputation includes the use of computer based techniques such as artificial neural networks genetic programming and fuzzy logic but in a geographical context This new book in the prestigious Innovations in GIS series presents the latest research in geocomputational techniques as presented in the GIS UK Annual Conference GIS David R. Green, 2018-10-08 In a relatively short time Geographic Information Systems GIS have spread from being primarily a research tool to higher and subsequently secondary education and from the researcher to the user GIS A Sourcebook for Schools is an easily accessible guide to GIS at an elementary level and provides sufficient background in GIS to ensure a comprehensive working knowledge of the subject It is written specifically for schoolteachers looking to incorporate GIS into the secondary school curriculum and will be the essential textbook for all those wishing to gain an introduction to a working knowledge of GIS The book contains everything that a teacher wanting to implement GIS into the curriculum would need including glossary of terms explanation of the fundamentals definitions and further reading No other book will be quite as useful as this one Artificial Intelligence: Theories, Models and Applications Ilias Maglogiannis, Vassilis

Plagianakos, Ioannis Vlahavas, 2012-05-26 This book constitutes the proceedings of the 7th Hellenic Conference on Artificial Intelligence SETN 2012 held in Lamia Greece in May 2012 The 47 contributions included in this volume were carefully reviewed and selected from 81 submissions They deal with emergent topics of artificial intelligence and come from the SETN main conference as well as from the following special sessions on advancing translational biological research through the incorporation of artificial intelligence methodologies artificial intelligence in bioinformatics intelligent annotation of digital content intelligent affective and natural interfaces and unified multimedia knowledge representation and processing

Abstracting Geographic Information in a Data Rich World Dirk Burghardt, Cécile Duchêne, William Mackaness, 2014-07-08 Research in the field of automated generalisation has faced new challenges in recent years as a result of technological developments in web based processing new visualisation paradigms and access to very large volumes of multi source data generated by sensors and humans In these contexts map generalisation needs to underpin on demand mapping a form of mapping that responds to individual user requirements in the thematic selection and visualisation of geographic information It is this new impetus that drives the research of the ICA Commission on Generalisation and Multiple Representation for example through its annual workshops biannual tutorials and publications in international journals This book has a coherent structure each chapter focusing on core concepts and tasks in the map generalisation towards on demand mapping Each chapter presents a state of the art review together with case studies that illustrate the application of pertinent generalisation methodologies The book addresses issues from data gathering to multi scaled outputs Thus there are chapters devoted to defining user requirements in handling specifications and in the application and evaluation of map generalisation algorithms It explores the application of generalisation methodologies in the context of growing volumes of data and the increasing popularity of user generated content

Innovations in Design & Decision Support Systems in Architecture and Urban Planning Jos P. Leeuwen, van, Harry J.P. Timmermans, 2006-09-21 Traditionally the DDSS conferences aim to be a platform for both starting and experienced researchers who focus on the development and application of computer support in urban planning and architectural design This volume contains 31 peer reviewed papers from this year s conference This book will bring researchers together and is a valuable resource for their continuous joint effort to improve the design and planning of our environment

Generalisation of Geographic Information William A. Mackaness, Anne Ruas, L. Tiina Sarjakoski, 2011-07-28 Theoretical and Applied Solutions in Multi Scale Mapping Users have come to expect instant access to up to date geographical information with global coverage presented at widely varying levels of detail as digital and paper products customisable data that can readily combined with other geographic information These requirements present an immense challenge to those supporting the delivery of such services National Mapping Agencies NMA Government Departments and private business Generalisation of Geographic Information Cartographic Modelling and Applications provides detailed review of state of the art technologies associated with these challenges including the most recent developments in cartometric analysis techniques able to support high levels of automation among multi scale derivation techniques The book illustrates the application of these ideas within existing and emerging technologies In addition to providing a comprehensive theoretical underpinning the book demonstrates how theoretical developments have translated into commercial systems deployed within NMAs The book explores relevance of open systems in support of collaborative research and open source web based map services State of the art review on multi scale representation techniques Detailed consideration of database requirements and object modeling in support of emerging applications 3D mobile and innovative delivery map generalisation services Illustration through existing map production environment implementations Consolidated bibliography 680 entries 200 illustrations author and subject index
