Airborne Maritime Surveillance in the North Atlantic John O. Birkeland, 2025-07-17 This book offers a comprehensive examination of historical Norwegian and allied airborne maritime surveillance operations in the North Atlantic after World War II until the present Russia's resurgent naval and submarine activity in the High North needs to be closely observed Norway together with her closest allies have monitored such activity in the High North since the end of World War II One of the key instruments in that effort has been Maritime Patrol Aircraft MPA with their Anti Submarine Warfare ASW capabilities However after the Cold War in many nations an atrophy took place within the MPA communities of knowledge resources and experience with airborne ASW This occurred just as the concept of intelligence surveillance and reconnaissance ISR came to play an increasingly important role in modern warfare but without sufficient attention being paid to the specific challenges of maritime airborne surveillance and reconnaissance This book addresses that gap and examines the entwined evolution of airborne maritime surveillance by MPA and ASW in the High North both during and after the Cold War with the main focus being on Norway The discussion identifies the fundamental building blocks of these historical surveillance operations through a portrayal of the development of airborne surveillance and reconnaissance operations These building blocks are then applied to make recommendations for the future for maritime surveillance in the High North This book will be of much interest to students of naval history strategic studies intelligence studies Nordic studies and International Relations

Conflict in the 21st Century Nicholas Michael Sambaluk, 2019-08-08 This reference work examines how sophisticated cyber attacks and innovative use of social media have changed conflict in the digital realm while new military technologies such as drones and robotic weaponry continue to have an impact on modern warfare Cyber warfare social media and the latest military weapons are transforming the character of modern conflicts This book explains how through overview essays written by an award winning author of military history and technology topics in addition to more than 200 entries dealing with specific examples of digital and physical technologies categorized by their relationship to cyber warfare social media and physical technology areas Individually these technologies are having a profound impact on modern conflicts cumulatively they are dynamically transforming the character of conflicts in the modern world The book begins with a comprehensive overview essay on cyber warfare and a large section of A-Z reference entries related to this topic The same detailed coverage is given to both social media and technology as they relate to conflict in the 21st century Each of the three sections also includes an expansive bibliography that serves as a gateway for further research on these topics The book ends with a detailed chronology that helps readers place all the key events in these areas

Maritime Unmanned Ernest M Snowden, Robert F Wood, 2021-10-15 Maritime Unmanned recounts the promising

beginning demoralizing setbacks and ultimate success of the visionaries who championed unmanned aircraft systems UAS technology for the U S Navy Ernest Snowden and Robert F Wood Jr dive deep inside the machinations of aerospace and defense industry leadership strategy development and execution to describe the process by which the Air Force s Global Hawk was adapted to become the Navy s Triton This was the first time in the history of naval aviation that an unmanned aerial vehicle was adopted into frontline squadron inventories to become an enabling component of the maritime patrol and reconnaissance mission a process that took more than twenty years as industry representatives and Navy counterparts developed and socialized an unfamiliar and unconventional concept of operations and senior government acquisition officials either advocated or purposely road blocked its advancement Military Writers Society of America Award Bronze Medal

Global Hawk Ricky Thomas,2015-12-12 Despite the high level of media attention most military unmanned aircraft remain shrouded in secrecy including one of the largest called Global Hawk Rick Thomas a retired senior level Air Force officer and Global Hawk pilot introduces the largest operational unmanned reconnaissance aircraft in the world and reveals first hand accounts of how this amazing unmanned aircraft came to be He also takes you inside the Global Hawk control station to experience what it s like to be a Global Hawk pilot especially when things go wrong Rick shares incredible stories about the close calls the combat sorties and the crashes that occur throughout the Global Hawk s history Rick also takes you inside the Pentagon to closed door meetings where decisions are made on spending billions yes BILLIONS of dollars on the Global Hawk You will discover not everyone is pleased with the Global Hawk Factions within Congress as well as a mysterious group called the U 2 mafia conspire to shut it down Despite their ongoing efforts Global Hawk experiences ironic timing and streaks of luck In its darkest moments world events transpire which propel it into the national limelight Contributors include over thirty high level leaders and managers including former Chief of Staff of the Air Force General John Jumper former Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition Larry Lynn former President and CEO of Ryan Aircraft Company Bob Mitchell former Air Force intelligence chief Lieutenant General David Deptula and many others The stories of these movers and shakers are what make the high flying long range Global Hawk aircraft a compelling story and a rich and rewarding reading experience It will compel you to think the Global Hawk is almost human America ,1944-10 Contents of Periodicals on Latin
