Global Advertising Culture Thomas Gould:

Global Advertising in a Global Culture Thomas H. P. Gould, 2015-12-16 Globalization stems from many sources but as Thomas Gould makes clear advertising is a primary driver of trans global cultural change Gould argues that advertising often carries unfiltered and unblocked cultural messages in addition to commercial speech as such it not only builds consumer demand to open new markets but also changes consumer expectations and values At the same time the evolution of increasingly targeted mobile and social marketing is transforming local and regional cultures into a new mix of global branding and individualized micro space Gould examines how advertising professionals negotiate these rocky and quickly changing cultural terrains He also explores how advertising an increasingly global form of communication is becoming a platform for change at the individual level and as a direct consequence at the social and political levels
