Global NATO and the Catastrophic Failure in Libya Horace Campbell, 2013-03-01 In this incisive account scholar Horace Campbell investigates the political and economic crises of the early twenty first century through the prism of NATO s intervention in Libya He traces the origins of the conflict situates it in the broader context of the Arab Spring uprisings and explains the expanded role of a post Cold War NATO This military organization he argues is the instrument through which the capitalist class of North America and Europe seeks to impose its political will on the rest of the world however warped by the increasingly outmoded neoliberal form of capitalism The intervention in Libya characterized by bombing campaigns military information operations third party countries and private contractors exemplifies this new model Campbell points out that while political elites in the West were quick to celebrate the intervention in Libya as a success the NATO campaign caused many civilian deaths and destroyed the nation s infrastructure Furthermore the instability it unleashed in the forms of militias and terrorist groups have only begun to be reckoned with as the United States learned when its embassy was attacked and personnel including the ambassador were killed Campbell's lucid study is essential reading for anyone seeking to understand this complex and weighty course of events Global NATO and the Catastrophic Failure in Libya Horace Campbell, 2013 In this incisive account scholar Horace Campbell investigates the political and economic crises of the early twenty first century through the prism of NATOOCOs intervention in Libya He traces the origins of the conflict situates it in the broader context of the Arab Spring uprisings and explains the expanded role of a post Cold War NATO This military organization he argues is the instrument through which the capitalist class of North America and Europe seeks to impose its political will on the rest of the world however warped by the increasingly outmoded neoliberal form of capitalism The intervention in LibyaOCocharacterized by bombing campaigns military information operations third party countries and private contractorsOCoexemplifies this new model Campbell points out that while political elites in the West were quick to celebrate the intervention in Libya as a success the NATO campaign caused many civilian deaths and destroyed the nationOCOs infrastructure Furthermore the instability it unleashed in the forms of militias and terrorist groups have only begun to be reckoned with as the United States learned when its embassy was attacked and personnel including the ambassador were killed CampbellOCOs lucid study is essential reading for anyone seeking to understand this complex and weighty course of events NATO: An Entity Set on Disaster Hans Myrebro, 2023-07-09 Ever since its creation in 1949 when the United States was already a significant nuclear power the organization has constantly worked to create conflicts that have been able to enrich its own arms industry As Johan Galtung put it The conflict could have been resolved with a little patience and creativity but NATO does not want solutions It uses conflict as raw material it can process into interventions to tell the world that it is the strongest in military terms The period after 1992 is therefore cluttered with 251 examples of military interventions in various states from NATO as a whole or from individual member states with democracy as a pretext

This according to the USA's Congressional Research Service March 2022 But NATO has never tried to resolve any conflicts peaceful solutions do not bring any profits to a military power The latest example of this is the war in Ukraine From the beginning there was no conflict between Russia and Ukraine It must be created by the US with the help of the EU It was created by these powers politicized and militarized by various NATO states and now we are seeing the results It is important not least for school youth students that they get a different version than the mainstream gives of what is happening geopolitically A version that is not agenda based but where the ambition is an accurate description of a conflict filled world The book NATO an Entity set on Disaster contributes strongly to providing a fact based comprehensive and sustainable picture of what is happening Social Inequality, Economic Decline, and Plutocracy Dale L. Johnson, 2017-02-14 This book aims to further an understanding of present day America by exploring counter hegemony to the rule of capital and offering guidelines for strategizing change proceeding from the dialectic of What Is and What Ought to Be The author analyzes neoliberal global order and its political expressions through discussions of the dominance of finance capital in the late twentieth century the triumph of ideology the closing of avenues to reform the problem of the captive state and a sociological analysis of rule by divide and conquer The book concludes with a look at the history of movement politics in culture arts economics and politics It resounds with a hope that challenges to hegemony can use many paths to change of which the African Intellectuals and the electoral path is but one of many fronts in the long term struggle for radical reform State of the Continent Olayiwola Abegunrin, Sabella Abidde, 2018-07-26 This festschrift is composed in honor of a distinguished scholar and Pan Africanist Professor Sulayman S Nyang whose career and intellectual pursuits spans more than 45 years much of it at Howard University Nyang's contributions to African affairs transcend the scope of the academic world as he served as First Secretary and Head of Chancery of the Gambian Embassy in Saudi Arabia from 1975 to 1977 and consultant to the World Bank and United Nations agencies In addition Professor Nyang served as the President of the Interfaith Conference of Metropolitan Washington DC and a member of the boards of many academic journals and organizations of Islamic Studies in the USA He has published copiously on a variety of issues affecting continental Africans Africans in the Diaspora and beyond He has published and collaborated on dozens of books and book chapters and more than 100 articles in referred journals Protection of Civilians Haidi Willmot, Ralph Mamiya, Scott Sheeran, Marc Weller, 2016-04-14 The protection of civilians is a highly topical issue at the forefront of international discourse and has taken a prominent role in many international deployments It has been at the centre of debates on the NATO intervention in Libya UN deployments in Darfur South Sudan and the Democratic Republic of the Congo and on the failures of the international community in Sri Lanka and Syria Variously described as a moral responsibility a legal obligation a mandated peacekeeping task and the culmination of humanitarian activity it has become a high profile concern of governments international organisations and civil society and a central issue in international peace and security This book offers a multidisciplinary

Britain in Libyan Investment Authority (LIA) Vs. Goldman Sachs, the Financial Behemoth of Wall Street Revealed how Firms in the Financialization of, The discussion for this policy brief builds upon the thesis first developed in my book entitled Global NATO and the Catastrophic Failure in Libya Lessons for Africa in the forging of African Unity 3 One of the un intended consequences of the NATO intervention in Libya was to advance the pace of the understanding of the necessity to unify the peoples of Africa and for clarity about the nature of 2 May 2018 The reader's attention is hereby drawn to the judgment in the High Court of London in October 2016 during the Libyan Investment Authority vs Goldman Sachs case 4 This was the outcome of a two and a half year legal battle between Goldman Sachs and Libya's 67 billion sovereign fund over the use of the resources of Libya in the speculative activities of the financial oligarchy in the wor It is clear therefore that the Central Bank of Libya that was tightly controlled outside of the International Monetary Fund the National Oil Company of Libya that was tightly controlled by the Libyan Government and the Libyan Investment Authority were the targets of the liberal intellectuals of the West and the Western banking structures Despite the post intervention stories of the success of the bombing campaign the vaunted cooperation between the forces was hampered by the lack of interoperability between the computerized systems of the USA and the other allies There was no cooperation in relation to battlefield information collection and exploitation system BICES The contradictions in international relations of the West has meant that though the European Parliament has identified Wahhabism as the main source of the so called global terrorism the United States and the West are the close allies of the Saudi state NATO's Failure in Libya Horace Campbell, 2012 When the Tunisian and Egyptian uprisings erupted in Africa in the first two months of the year 2011 with the chant the people want to bring down the regime there was hope all over the continent that these rebellions were part of a wider African Awakening President Ben Ali of Tunisia was forced to step down and fled to Saudi Arabia Within a month of Ben Ali s departure Hosni Mubarak of Egypt was removed from power by the people who mobilised a massive revolutionary movement in the country Four days after the ousting of Mubarak sections of the Libyan people rebelled in Benghazi Within days this uprising was militarised with armed resistance countered by declarations from the Libyan leadership vowing to use raw state power to root out the rebellion The first Libyan demonstrations occurred on February 15 2011 but by February 21 there were reports that innocent civilians were in imminent danger of being massacred by the army This information was embellished by reports of the political leadership branding the rebellious forces as rats The United States US Britain and France took the lead to rush through a resolution in the United Nations UN Security Council invoking the principle of the responsibility to protect This concept of responsibility to protect had been embraced and supported by many governments in the aftermath of the genocidal episodes in Rwanda Bosnia and Kosovo The UN Security Council Resolution 1973 of 2011 was loosely worded with the formulation all necessary measures tacked on to ensure wide latitude for those societies and political leaders who orchestrated the North Atlantic Treaty Organization NATO intervention in Libya In the following nine months the implementation of this UN resolution exposed the real objectives of the leaders of the US France and Britain With the Western media fuelling a propaganda campaign in the traditions of manufacturing consent this Security Council authorisation was stretched from a clear and limited civilian protection mandate into a military campaign for regime change and the execution of the President of Libya Muammar Gaddafi Political Science Abstracts ,1993-08-31 Political Science Abstracts is an annual supplement to the Political Science Government and Public Policy Series of The Universal Reference System which was first published in 1967 All back issues are still available The New World of Politics Neal Riemer, Douglas W. Simon, 1991 Arms Control Today ,1991 The EU, NATO and the Libva Conflict Stefano Marcuzzi, 2021-12-24 This book explores the causes and implications of the Libyan crisis since the anti Gaddafi uprisings of 2011 from the perspective of the EU and NATO It asks the question of why those organizations failed to stabilize the country despite the serious challenges posed by the protracted crisis to European and transatlantic stakes in the region This book argues that such failure originated in a twofold problem common to both organizations their prioritization of legitimacy over strategy and their path dependence the insufficient degree of adaptation to meet the different needs of the crisis Through a critical and integrated analysis of official sources and extensive interviews with EU NATO UN and national government officials and militaries as well as from NGO personnel Libyan institutions and civil society and media the volume brings the perspective of both state and non state actors to the fore It reveals how wrong assumptions and centrifugal forces within the EU and NATO hampered initiatives and how the inability to use hard power judiciously and effectively in an increasingly complex and multifaceted scenario worsened the crisis This allowed for unprecedented influence of regional and global competitors such as Egypt the United Arab Emirates UAE Turkey and Russia in the richest African country This book will be of key interest for scholars and students of Libya and North Africa NATO the European Union security and conflict studies Middle East studies migration terrorism peacebuilding and more broadly international relations USA Today Index ,1995

The Guardian Index ,1996 The New York Times Index ,2004 Armies & Weapons ,1978 The NATO Intervention in Libya Kjell Engelbrekt, Marcus Mohlin, Charlotte Wagnsson, 2013-10-01 This book explores lessons learned from the military intervention in Libya by examining key aspects of the 2011 NATO campaign NATO s intervention in Libya had unique features rendering it unlikely to serve as a model for action in other situations. There was an explicit UN Security Council mandate to use military force a strong European commitment to protect Libyan civilians Arab League political endorsement and American engagement in the critical initial phase of the air campaign Although the seven month intervention stretched NATO s ammunition stockpiles and political will almost to their respective breaking points the definitive overthrow of the Gaddafi regime is universally regarded as a major accomplishment With contributions from a range of key thinkers and analysts in the field the book first explains the law and politics of the intervention starting out with deliberations in NATO and at the UN Security Council both noticeably influenced by the concept of a Responsibility to Protect R2P It then goes on to examine a wide set of military and auxiliary measures that governments and defence forces undertook in order to increasingly tilt the balance against the Gaddafi regime and to bring about an end to the conflict as well as to the intervention proper while striving to keep the number of NATO and civilian casualties to a minimum This book will be of interest to students of strategic studies history and war studies and IR in general
