Leadership For Change: The Singapore Schools' Experience Thiam Seng Koh, David Wei Loong Hung, 2017-12-27 The book shares stories of the role of school leadership in Singapore with case studies from selected schools that provides some insights on how Singapore delivers a high quality education that had led to it achieving high rankings in TIMSS and PISA This book will provide both the historical and present contexts of changes in the education system school leadership and teacher leadership in Singapore that made it what it is today It will distil some universal principles of educational change that school leaders and policy makers can apply in bringing about educational changes that will enhance the learning experiences of students and prepare them for future challenges

Curriculum Innovation in East Asian Schools Huixuan Xu, 2024-11-12 Following closely behind the global pandemic's recent forced challenges to schools and teachers Xu gives an overview of how educational researchers and schools in Asia respond to challenges in times of change Her research focuses on how they adjust or change curriculum policy and practice to find a balance between developing innovation in response to fast changing societal needs and maintaining the existing education systems that traditionally predict success for students In this book curriculum innovation is documented in three themes 21st century skills and competency based curriculum technology supported curriculum and equity in curriculum Xu includes three types of chapters 1 case studies that provide detailed analyses of curriculum innovation at the school or country level 2 conceptual analyses that deepen our understanding of curriculum issues using a new lens and 3 literature reviews that provide an overview of research in particular topics The volume will be of great interest to researchers and educators interested in the role of curriculum innovation in times of change In particular it focuses on the ways innovative curriculum provides opportunities for individual students to maximize their potential while also acknowledging the constraints of local education systems Education in Singapore Yew-Jin Lee,2022-04-06 This edited book is a comprehensive resource for understanding the history as well as the current status of educational practices in Singapore It is a one stop reference guide to education and educational issues concerns here There are three sections Part 1 provides a sectorial overview of how education has been organized in this country such as preschool special needs primary and secondary and adult education divisions In Part 2 contributors critically delve into issues and policies that are pertinent to understanding education here such as underachievement leadership language education assessment and meritocracy to question what Part 1 might have taken for granted Part 3 contains the largest number of contributors because it offers a scholarly examination into specific subject histories This section stands out because of the comparative rarity of its subject matter history of Physical Education Art Music Geography Education etc in Singapore Twenty-five Years of PISA in Southeast Asia I Gusti Ngurah Darmawan,Nina Maadad,Francisco Ben,2025-12-23 This book is an illuminating journey through a quarter century of education in Southeast Asia It offers an intricate examination of student performance in core subjects mathematics science and reading while transcending conventional academic assessments to underscore the pivotal role of student well being in achieving educational success The content s strength lies in its meticulous analysis of voluminous datasets historical trajectories and cross national studies Addressing the profound impacts of the COVID 19 pandemic the integration of technology and the partnership between educators and families this work provides a comprehensive perspective on education Moreover it augments its insights with real world case studies and best practices from the region rendering practical wisdom for nurturing academic excellence In an age marked by rapid change and escalating complexity this is an indispensable compass for educators policymakers and researchers equipping them with knowledge to make informed decisions By foregrounding the imperative of well being alongside academic accomplishments the authors champion a holistic approach to education that meets the diverse and dynamic needs of Southeast Asian students offering a roadmap toward enhanced educational quality resilience and the empowerment of future generations

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2004 Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall,1990 Inquiry into the Singapore Science Classroom Aik-Ling Tan,Chew-Leng Poon,Shirley S.L. Lim,2014-05-19 This book offers an insight into the research and practices of science teaching and learning in the Singapore classroom with particular attention paid to how they map on to science as inquiry It provides a spectrum of Singapore s science educational practices through all levels of its education system detailing both successes and shortcomings The book features a collection of research and discourse by science educators in Singapore organized around four themes that are essential components of approaching science as inquiry teachers ideas and their practices opportunities and constraints from a systemic level students competencies and readiness to learn through inquiry and the need for greater awareness of the role of informal learning avenues in science education In addition the discourse within each theme is enriched by commentary from a leading international academic which helps to consolidate ideas as well as position the issues within a wider theoretical and international context Overall the papers set out important contexts for readers to understand the current state of science education in Singapore They also highlight strengths and gaps in practices of science as inquiry as well as provide suggestions about how the system can be improved These research findings are therefore helpful as they provide honest and evidence based feedback as well as tangible and doable ideas that policy makers teachers students and school administrators can adopt adapt and enhance

Diversifying Schools David Hung, Longkai Wu, Dennis Kwek, 2022-02-04 This book discusses the strategies that the Singapore Education System has embarked to encourage school change and innovations It documents the change journey of Specialized Schools and Future Schools in Singapore with a view to understand the key tenets that enable school wide change and reform The intents for change and reform are to anchor the education system to the basic foundations and principles of education and yet enable the system as a whole to be malleable to change and globalization It shows how Singapore enables diversity within a structured environment through innovations in Specialized and Future Schools and highlights the systemic rationale behind various efforts in Specialized and Future Schools and the kinds of adaptations schools have made to leverage structures and make adjustments for their contexts

Quadrilingual Education in Singapore Rita Elaine Silver, Wendy D. Bokhorst-Heng, 2016-01-21 This book explores Singapore s language education system Unlike previous volumes which discuss the bilingual requirement for learning it focuses on Singapore s quadrilingual system bringing together articles on each of the four languages English Mandarin Malay and Tamil as well as articles that examine more than one language It highlights past successes current concerns and future directions for language education The book focuses on classroom pedagogy in all four official languages showcasing how languages are taught and learned in Singapore as a basis for better understanding the system from the inside out The authors present empirical classroom based studies on language pedagogy in all four languages as well as updated information on the current socio political context and how it has influenced attempts at pedagogical innovation Consideration is given to the dialectical relationship between policy and practice The chapters also include discussions of pre school age learning influences of language policy home literacy practices and commentaries by international language in education scholars This approach also provides a basis for international comparison especially for those who are interested in fostering English proficiency while maintaining one or more national languages The volume is particularly important in light of the continuing international efforts to integrate English into national educational systems where it is not the dominant language Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1991 Changing Schools in an Era of Globalization John Chi-Kin Lee,Brian J. Caldwell,2012-04-27 Much has been written about globalization and the challenge of preparing young people for the new world of work and life in times of complexity and continuous change However few works have examined how globalization has and will continue to shape education in the East This volume discusses education within the context of globalization and examines what is occurring in schools and systems of education in the People s Republic of China Hong Kong Chinese Taipei Singapore and Australia Closer examination of recent developments and current trends reveal the same turbulence and a range of common issues in areas such as assessment curriculum leadership management of change pedagogy policy professional capacity and technology This volume demonstrates the commonalities and differences and offers tremendous insight into the way things are done in places where student achievement is high but there is also a sense of urgency in continuing an agenda of change Teacher Education in the 21st Century Oon-Seng Tan,Woon-Chia Liu,Ee-Ling Low,2017-02-09 This book examines the evolution and innovation of teacher education in Singapore in the 21st century It covers teacher education reforms in the conceptualising and implementing of the Teacher Education for the 21st Century TE21 Model and discusses curriculum improvements that are aligned to new competencies values development that re envision teacher professionalism and calling pedagogical changes that emphasise self directed inquiry and technology enabled learning strengthened theory practice linkages and enhanced teaching practices through school partnerships and mentoring and impactful education research in areas such as assessment and developing teaching competencies practices and mentoring Teacher education in Singapore focuses on developing professional leaders in the field of education who are proactive problem solvers and empowered researchers It entails a long term vision of education and an innovative approach to develop teachers with design skills and an inquiring mindset to understand learners in the fast changing digital and mobile world This book is aimed at scholars researchers policymakers teacher educators and teachers as well as anyone interested in learning the philosophy behind Singapore s unique TE21 Model for the 21st century and beyond Tactical Globalization Aaron Koh,2010 This book is about a small city state s social experiment with globalization It examines how Singapore conducts its globalization experiment through the state apparatus of schooling and education policy The author argues that Singapore engages with globalization by anticipating the problem space of globalization with calculated actions and experimentation termed tactics and tactical globalization in the book Central to the book is an examination and analysis of the Thinking Schools Learning Nation education policy and reform While Tactical Globalization contributes to the sociology of globalization by foregrounding new narratives on globalization that are emerging it also takes a contextual and innovative approach to education policy analysis which includes a speech turned policy document and a nationally televised segment of a documentary called Learning Journeys Internationalization of Teacher Education and the Nation State Rita Z. Nazeer-Ikeda, 2020-10-29 The relationship between teacher education and internationalization is often regarded as one that has just begun sparked by globalization and its knowledge economy This book questions such an assumption by arguing that although contemporary demands on teacher education have intensified the need for internationalization teacher education and internationalization have a deep and complex relationship which is context dependent and has developed differently over time This book urges its readers to question and rethink overly nationalistic approaches to teacher education It shows how the internationalization of teacher education could be used as a strategic tool to support sustainable educational development and meet labor market demands for twenty first century competencies It puts the spotlight on the imperatives for internationalizing teacher education and its present forms and considers this current phenomenon in the context of Singapore This nation state has a history of internationalization albeit with differing rationales dimensions and strategies Internationalization has been a key driver of the Singapore education system s sustained growth from its humble beginnings to its present state as one of the best performing education systems in the world This book will be of great interest to policy makers academics researchers and graduate students in the fields of international and comparative education teacher education and South East Asian studies Changing Education Peter D. Hershock, Mark Mason, John N. Hawkins, 2007 This book responds to the growing unease of educators and non educators alike about the inadequacy of most current educational systems and programs to meet sufficiently the demands of fast changing societies These systems and programs evolved and were developed in and for societies that have long been transformed and yet no parallel transformation has taken place in the education systems they spawned In the last twenty years or so other sectors of society such as transportation and communications systems have radically changed the way they operate but education has remained essentially the same There is no doubt education needs to change To those ready to accept this challenge this book represents a welcome guide Unlike most books on educational policy this volume does not focus on improving existing educational systems but on changing them altogether Its focus is not on doing things better but on doing better things not on doing things right but on doing the right things to prepare students for a fast changing interdependent world Globalization and Education Jeffrey S. Brooks, Anthony H. Normore, Melanie C. Brooks, Nicola Sum, 2022-06-01 Globalization and Education Teaching Learning and Leading in the World Schoolhouse explores the various ways educators work is influenced by globalization This book presents topics and contexts traditionally marginalized in mainstream education research discourses and shows how local and global education issues are intersecting and shaping the ways in which ideas and practices are shared around the world Each chapter presents an educational issue in an understudied international context such as Saudi Arabia Guyana Bangladesh Malaysia Indonesia Brazil and Nepal Topics range from how the knowledge industry shapes education in schools to the impact of globalization on school leadership teaching and learning We invite scholars and practitioners to join us in the world schoolhouse a place where discussion about educational understanding and improvement is not bounded by national borders school systems or language This book will both challenge and expand thinking about the complexities of education during a time of globalization and change Globalization and Marketization in Education Ka-Ho Mok,Jason Tan,2004-01-01 Mok humanities and social sciences City U of Hong Kong and Tan education policy and management Nanyang Technological U Singapore review the strategies their two governments have adopted to reform the education systems in response to the growing impact of globalization They focus on financing provision and regulation The two countries a
