Gender And Elections Shaping The Future Of American Politics:

Gender and Elections Susan J. Carroll, Richard L. Fox, 2013-12-23 The third edition of Gender and Elections offers a systematic lively and multifaceted account of the role of gender in the electoral process through the 2012 elections. This timely yet enduring volume strikes a balance between highlighting the most important developments for women as voters and candidates in the 2012 elections and providing a more long term in depth analysis of the ways that gender has helped shape the contours and outcomes of electoral politics in the United States. Individual chapters demonstrate the importance of gender in understanding and interpreting presidential elections, presidential and vice presidential candidacies, voter participation and turnout, voting choices, congressional elections, the political involvement of Latinas, the participation of African American women, the support of political parties and women's organizations, candidate communications with voters and state elections. Without question, Gender and Elections is the most comprehensive, reliable and trustworthy resource on the role of gender in US electoral politics.

Gender and the American Presidency Theodore F. Sheckels, Nichola D. Gutgold, Diana B. Carlin, 2012-03-08 In Gender and the American Presidency Nine Presidential Women and the Barriers They Faced Theodore F Sheckels, Nichola D Gutgold and Diana Bartelli Carlin invite the audience to consider women qualified enough to be president and explores reasons why they have been dismissed as presidential contenders This analysis profiles key presidential contenders including Barbara Mikulski Nancy Pelosi Nancy Kassebaum Kathleen Sebelius Christine Gregoire Linda Lingle Elizabeth Dole Dianne Feinstein and Olympia Snowe Gender barriers media coverage communication style geography and other factors are examined to determine why these seemingly qualified powerful politicians failed to win the White House Watch the authors discuss gender and American politics on CSPAN s BookTV

Women in the American Political System Dianne G. Bystrom, Barbara Burrell, 2018-12-01 This book examines how women candidates voters and office holders shape U S political processes and institutions lending their perspectives to gradually evolve American life and values This book provides an encyclopedic sourcebook on the evolution of women s involvement in American politics from the colonial era to the present covering all of the individuals organizations cultural forces political issues and legal decisions that have collectively served to elevate the role of women at the ballot box on the campaign trail in Washington and in state and city level political offices across the country The in depth essays document and examine the rising prominence of women as voters candidates public officials and lawmakers enabling readers to understand how U S political processes and institutions have been and will continue to be shaped by women and their perspectives on American life and values The entries cover a range of women politicians and officials female activists and media figures relevant organizations and interest groups such as Emily s List League of Women Voters and National Right to Life key laws court cases and events such as the Nineteenth Amendment the Equal Rights Amendment the Seneca Falls Convention the passage of Title IX and Roe v Wade and other topics like media coverage of appearance women s roles as campaign strategists fundraisers gender differences in policy priorities and the gender gap in political ambitions The text is supplemented by sidebars that highlight selected landmarks in women s political history in the United States such as the 2012 election of Tammy Baldwin the first openly gay U S senator

Gender in Campaigns for the U.S. House of Representatives Barbara Burrell, 2014-09-15 Barbara Burrell presents a comprehensive comparative examination of men s and women s candidacies for the U S House of Representatives in elections from 1994 through 2012 Analyzing extensive data sets on all major party candidates for 10 elections covering candidate status party affiliation fund raising candidate background variables votes obtained and success rates for both primary and general elections Burrell finds little evidence of categorical discrimination against women candidates Women compete equally with men and often outpace them in raising money gaining interest group and political party support and winning elections Yet the number of women elected to the U S House has expanded only incrementally The electoral structure limits opportunities for newcomers to win congressional seats and there remains a lower presence of women in winnable contests despite growing recruitment efforts Burrell suggests that congressional dysfunction discourages potential candidates from pursuing legislative careers and that ambitious women are finding alternative paths to influence and affect public policy

AMERICAN POLITICAL SCIENCE ASSOCIATION Why Democratic women far outnumber Republican women in elective offices From Kamala Harris and Elizabeth Warren to Stacey Abrams and Alexandria Ocasio Cortez women around the country are running in and winning elections at an unprecedented rate It appears that women are on a steady march toward equal representation across state legislatures and the US Congress but there is a sharp divide in this representation along party lines Most of the women in office are Democrats and the number of elected Republican women has been plunging for decades In The Partisan Gap Elder examines why this disparity in women's representation exists and why it's only going to get worse Drawing on interviews with female office holders candidates and committee members she takes a look at what it is like to be a woman in each party From party culture and ideology to candidate recruitment and the makeup of regional biases Elder shows the factors contributing to this harmful partisan gap and what can be done to address it in the future The Partisan Gap explores the factors that help and hinder women's political representation Voting the Gender Gap Lois Duke Whitaker, 2008-04-02 Investigating how gender affects voting What Women Want Gill Steel, 2022-03-14 Women vote their own minds Beyond The Woman's Card. The Politics of Gender in Hillary Clinton's Second Presidential Campaign Catherina Kaiser, 2018-12-13 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2016 in the subject Gender Studies grade 1.0 LMU Munich Amerika Institut language English abstract The USA remains one of very few powerful democratic nations that are yet to elect a female head of state This BA thesis aims to deconstruct the idea of the modern USA as a post gender society and show that gender in reality still matters in society just as in presidential politics Kaisers analysis first of all aims to illustrate the different layers the famous glass ceiling is made of in American society in general and in presidential politics in specific Furthermore it displays how these invisible barriers have affected Hillary Rodham Clinton as an individual woman on her rise to power And finally it proposes to analyze Clinton's changing strategies from 2008 to 2016 to deal with gender as a variable in her efforts to become president Legislative Women Beth Reingold, 2008 This wide ranging study grapples with the increasingly complex array of opportunities and challenges that face women today as both legislative candidates and elected officials The contributors deal with issues including race and ethnicity campaign finance media relations and women's advance into the ranks of the elite CURA Reporter, 2008 Women at the Polls Cal Clark, Janet Clark, 2008 Since 1980 most elections in the United States have been marked by a gender gap in which women are more supportive of Democratic candidates than men by nearly ten percentage points Women at the Polls finds that this gender gap is quite extensive as it exists in almost all demographic groups and as it is based on similar differences in the political attitudes of women and men over a wide array of issues This suggests that women are becoming an important constituency in US politics The Journal of Parliamentary Information, 2010 Rethinking Madam President Lori Cox Han, Caroline Heldman, 2007 From the political rumour mill to pop culture all signs suggest that the United States is finally ready for a woman in the White House This text offers a critical assessment of the inroads made by female candidates into the previously male bastion of electoral success Feminist Periodicals ,2006 American Philosophical Quarterly Nicholas Rescher,2006 Annual Report Florida Commission on the Status of Women,2010 Políticas Sonia Rebecca García,2008-02 In the decades since Latinas began to hold public office in the United States in the late 1950s they have blazed new trails in public life bringing fresh perspectives leadership styles and policy agendas to the business of governing cities counties states and the nation As of 2004 Latinas occupied 27.4 percent of the more than 6 000 elected and appointed local state and national positions filled by Hispanic officeholders The greatest number of these Latina officeholders reside in Texas where nearly six hundred women occupy posts from municipal offices school boards and county offices to seats in the Texas House and Senate In this book five Latina political scientists profile the women who have been the first Latinas to hold key elected and appointed positions in Texas government Through interviews with each woman or her associates the authors explore and theorize about Latina officeholders political socialization decision to run for office and obstacles overcome leadership style and representational roles and advocacy The profiles begin with Irma Rangel the first Latina elected to the Texas House of Representatives and Judith Zaffirini and Leticia Van de Putte the only two Latinas to serve in the Texas Senate The authors also interview Lena Guerrero the first and only Latina to serve in a statewide office judges Linda Yanes Alma Lopez Elma Salinas Ender Mary Roman and Alicia Chacón mayors Blanca Sanchez Vela Brownsville Betty Flores Laredo and Olivia Serna Crystal City and Latina city councilwomen from San Antonio El Paso Dallas Houston and Laredo
