Gender Social Inequalities And Aging Gender Lens Series:

Gender, Social Inequalities, and Aging Toni M. Calasanti, Kathleen F. Slevin, 2001-08-28 The experience of men and women in later life varies enormously not only along lines of gender but also due to ethnicity class sexual orientation and race In this text on gender issues among the aging Calasanti and Slevin explore these differences their genesis their meaning to men and women and their treatment in the policy arena The authors also take to task traditional research on aging and how it ignores these issues The authors cover topics of work and retirement body image sexuality health family relationships and informal care among many others The current research and nuanced theoretical approach presented in this brief book makes it the ideal text to correct the stereotypic and monolithic views of the elderly for courses in gender or aging

Gender and Governance Lisa D. Brush, 2003-07-28 States are where the power lies and power is gendered With these simple statements Lisa Brush turns a gendered lens on states power and governance showing the inherent inequalities in political systems and gender systems and how they intersect Her gender lens allows a clear assessment of the different effects state power and social policies have on men and women highlighting both difference and dominance in the governance of gender She then turns her eye on the way in which state power supports male dominance the gender of governance Her nuanced arguments supported by cases from the American and other western political systems will make this book a useful antidote to traditional textbooks on government the state politics and social policy

Black Intimacies Shirley Ann Hill, 2005 In Black Intimacies: A Gender Perspective on Families and Relationships Shirley A Hill applies a gender lens to the multiple systems of oppression that have shaped the lives of African American women and men She challenges the image of a monolithic black population a legacy of the civil rights movement that she argues is impossible to sustain in the postmodern era Through a critique of intersectionality theory Hill examines the ways in which gender has affected experiences of intimacy family relationships child rearing and motherhood for contemporary African Americans Drawing on ethnographic material interviews and scholarly research Hill's work rethinks the cultural and historical definitions of black identity and reconceptualizes the various forms of oppression faced by black women This book will be useful to students and instructors of African American Studies Gender Studies Sociology Anthropology Marriage and Family and Social Work

Asian American Women and Men Yen Le Espiritu, 1997 What is the Asian American experience What role does gender play within that experience How do race and economics factor in Asian American women and men answers these questions and examines how Asian American culture is shaped by a variety of forces This groundbreaking volume in the new Gender lens series is among the first to explore the Asian experience from a gendered perspective Author Yen Le Espiritu documents how the historical and contemporary oppression of Asian Americans has structured gender relationships among them and has contributed to the creation of social institutions and systems of meaning In so doing she illustrates how race class and gender do not merely run parallel to each another but rather intersect and confirm one another Some of the topics discussed include Asian Americans and immigration labor recruitment education relationships and stereotypes Asian American women and men has an exceptionally broad audience including students and professionals in gender studies Asian American studies race and ethnicity studies sociology political science anthropology and American studies Class Questions Joan Acker, 2006 Class Questions Feminist Answers examines feminist theories of class and intersectionality and proposes a theory of gendered and racialized class processes as deeply embedded in capitalist practices both historically and today Joan Acker argues that large work organizations are primary locations in which gendered and racialized class inequalities are created As neo liberal market practices reorganize work gendered and racialized class inequalities are both reorganized and increasing nationally and globally This book will appeal to readers interested in a feminist discussion of class as a racialized and gendered process intimately tied to the capitalist economic system NWSA Journal ,2006 Bibliographic Guide to Education ,2002 lists publications cataloged by Teachers College Columbia University supplemented by The Research Libraries of The New York Public Library American Book Publishing Record ,2002 Changing Gender Relations, Changing Families Oriel Sullivan, 2006-04-27 It is common knowledge that responsibilities in the home are not divided equally between men and women Feminists bemoan how slowly this gender gap is changing Sociologist Oriel Sullivan however focuses on the neglected topic of the processes of change discussing changing domestic gender practices on many different levels from changes in attitudes about gender equality in the home to the quantitative analysis of change in the domestic division of labor His newly developed theoretical approach connects the wider discussion of gender practices within the home to the interactions and negotiations that individuals engage in on a day to day basis He includes empirical evidence for change presenting findings based upon directly comparable cross national data from the mid 1960s to the late 1990s This book will appeal to readers interested in gender studies sociology and in the changing gender equity of the home Gendered Situations, Gendered Selves Judith A. Howard, Jocelyn A. Hollander, 1997 Social psychologists have often assumed that situations and behavior are gender neutral yet assumptions about gender have affected the questions they have posed as well as the answers they have provided Gendered situations gendered selves is the second volume in the new Gender lens series a groundbreaking series that looks at the complex and fascinating role of gender within our social world Authors Judith A Howard and Jocelyn A Hollander explore the ways in which social psychology has simultaneously ignored and been deeply influenced by gender carefully noting that gender differences are not the same as sex differences Also discussed are the approaches to gender in social psychology research how social psychology theories have been shaped by assumptions about gender race class and sexuality and the way gender influences identity and interaction The mission of the Gender lens series is to unpack the assumptions about gender that pervade social life and to examine the centrality of the assumptions about the way we perceive and interpret our world Gendered situations gender selves is an ideal introduction to the discussion of gender in social psychology and will be useful in sociology and gender studies courses Sociological Abstracts Leo P.

Chall,2003 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers

Women and Gender Janice D. Yoder,2007 Well grounded in current research Women and Gender describes how psychology is continuously transformed by a gender sensitive and women centered approach The third edition has been thoroughly updated and redesigned with 14 chapters A new first chapter sets the tone for the entire book by linking gender differences to deeper issues of privilege oppression and power A new Chapter 10 looks at women s bodies and appearance As with the two previous editions Women and Gender encourages readers to draw on research theory and personal experience to enhance their understanding of how biology socialization personality and social contexts combine to influence the identities of women and men Emphasizing the true diversity of women Women and Gender also includes coverage of personal identity race and ethnicity dis ability sexual orientation age and socioeconomic class
