Gender in Hispanic Literature and Visual Arts Tania Gómez, Christina Mougoyanni Hennessy, Patricia Bolaños-Fabres, 2015-12-24 Gender in Hispanic Literature and Visual Arts provides an interdisciplinary and multicultural perspective on gender within Hispanic film and literature. The contributors analyze the relationship between the historical and social contexts of various Hispanic countries including Argentina, Colombia, Chile, Guatemala, Nicaragua, Mexico, Peru, Puerto Rico, Spain, and Uruguay, and the effects of their contexts on their representations of gender. This book examines gender-based violence, transvestism, lesbianism, misrepresentation, indigenism, dissent, identity, and voice as a means of better understanding the meaning and implications of gender within the diversity of people and cultures that comprise the Hispanic world.

Cinematic Landscape and Emerging Identities in Contemporary Latin American Film María Soledad Paz-MacKay, Argelia González Hurtado, 2024-03-06 Cinematic Landscape and Emerging Identities in Contemporary Latin American Film offers a series of perspectives produced from a diverse array of aesthetic and theoretical approaches that build on previous studies about cinematic landscape and space while addressing it from a regional perspective. This book explores how contemporary Latin American filmmakers have included, created, or transformed different types of landscapes in their works. The chapters highlight the centrality of landscape as a meaningful space in film, composed in addition to the image, sound, and movement. The core of the edited collection revolves around films where landscape emerges as a crucial element to transmit the urgency of issues affecting diverse Latin American societies. The representation of emerging social actors such as Indigenous groups, Afro-Latin Americans, LGBTQIA communities, migrants, environmentalists, and women offers a localized view of sociocultural, political, and environmental challenges from marginalized and dissenting voices.

Performances that Change the Americas Stuart Alexander Day, 2021-09-16 This collection of essays explores activist performances all connected to theater or performance training that have changed the Americas from Canada to the Southern Cone. Through the study of specific examples from numerous countries, the authors of this volume demonstrate a crucial shared outlook: they affirm that ordinary people change the direction of history through performance. This project offers concrete, compelling cases that emulate the modus operandi of people like historian Howard Zinn. In the same spirit, the chapters treat marginal groups whose stories underscore the potentially unstoppable and transformative power of united embodied voices This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of theatre performance art and politics
