Gender Space Architecture Jane Rendell, Barbara Penner, Iain Borden, 2000 Irigaray for Architects Peg Rawes, 2007-10-24 Written specifically for architects this short book introduces practitioners and students to Irigaray's work enabling them to understand the value of historically informed cross and inter disciplinary modes of architectural practice

The Routledge Handbook of Architecture, Urban Space and Politics, Volume I Nikolina Bobic, Farzaneh Haghighi, 2022-10-28 For architecture and urban space to have relevance in the 21st Century we cannot merely reignite the approaches of thought and design that were operative in the last century This is despite or because of the nexus between politics and space often being theorized as a representation or by product of politics As a symbol or an effect the spatial dimension is depoliticized Consequently architecture and the urban are halted from fostering any systematic change as they are secondary to the event and therefore incapable of performing any political role This handbook explores how architecture and urban space can unsettle the unquestioned construct of the spatial politics of governing Considering both ongoing and unprecedented global problems from violence and urban warfare the refugee crisis borderization detention camps terrorist attacks to capitalist urbanization inequity social unrest and climate change this handbook provides a comprehensive and multidisciplinary research focused on the complex nexus of politics architecture and urban space Volume I starts by pointing out the need to explore the politics of spatialization to make sense of the operational nature of spatial oppression in contemporary times The operative and active political reading of space is disseminated through five thematics Violence and War Machines Security and Borders Race Identity and Ideology Spectacle and the Screen and Mapping Landscapes and Big Data This first volume of the handbook frames cutting edge contemporary debates and presents studies of actual theories and projects that address spatial politics This Handbook will be of interest to anyone seeking to meaningfully disrupt the reduction of space to an oppressive or neutral backdrop of political realities Chapters 1 and 23 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 license

Architecture Jonathan Hill, 2001 The aim of this book is to expand the subject and matter of architecture and to explore their interdependence There are now many architectures This book acknowledges architecture far beyond the familiar boundaries of the discipline and reassesses the object at its centre the building Architectural matter is not always physical or building fabric It is whatever architecture is made of whether words bricks blood cells sounds or pixels The fifteen chapters are divided into three sections on buildings spaces and bodies which each deal with a particular understanding of architecture and architectural matter The richness and diversity of subjects and materials discussed in this book locates architecture firmly in the world as a whole not just the domain of architects In stating that architecture is far more than the work of architects this book aims not to deny the importance of architects in the production of architecture but to see their role in more balanced terms and to acknowledge other architectural producers Architecture can for example be found in the incisions of a surgeon the instructions of a choreographer or the movements of a user Architecture can be made of anything and by anyone

Women's Creativity since the Modern Movement (1918-2018) Helena Seražin, Emilia Maria Garda, Caterina Franchini, 2018-06-13 Extensive work is a result of four year research within the international project Women's Creativity since the Modern Movement and brings new insights into women in architecture construction design urban planning and landscape architecture in Europe and in the rest of the world It is divided into eight chapters that combine 116 articles on topics A Women's education and training National and international mappings B Women's legacy and heritage Protection restoration and enhancement C Women in communication and professional networks D Women and cultural tourism E Women's achievements and professional attainments Moving boundaries F Women and sustainability City and Landscape G Women as subjects Documentation methodology interpretation and enhancement SG Design drawings Obse no delo je plod tiriletnih raziskav v okviru mednarodnega projekta MoMoWoenska ustvarjalnost od modernizma dalje in prina a nova spoznanja na podro ju ensk v arhitekturi gradbeni tvu oblikovanju urbanizmu in krajinski arhitekturi v Evropi in ir e Razdeljena je v osem poglavij ki zdru ujejo 116 prispevkov na temo o njihovi izobra enosti kulturni zapu ini vklju evanju v stanovska zdru enja ali njihovim prispevkom h kulturnemu turizmu in stroki ter raziskovanju njihovega dela Zaklju i jo poglavje z grafi nimi prilogami Women, Practice, Architecture Naomi Stead, 2016-01-08 The image of the architect is undeniably gendered While the male architect might be celebrated as the ideal man in Hollywood romantic comedies blessed with practicality and creativity in equal measure to impeccable taste and an enviable lifestyle the image of the woman architect is not so clear cut While women have been practicing and excelling in architecture for more than a hundred years their professional identity as constructed in the media is complex and sometimes contradictory This book explores the working lives and aspirations of women in architectural practice but more than this it explores how popular media newspapers magazines and websites serve to define and describe who a woman architect should be what she should look like and how she should behave Looking further into the way that professional characteristics are reinforced through awards like the Pritzker Prize the book demonstrates how idealised characteristics such as sensitivity and vision are seen to be neither entirely masculine nor feminine but instead a complex hybrid owing much to historic concepts of genius Drawing on history sociology media analysis and feminist theories of architectural practice the book will be of interest to all of those who seek to better understand the image and identity of the architect This book was published as a double special issue of Architectural Theory Review Gender, space, architecture Jane Rendell, Barbara Penner, Iain Borden, 2000

pResisting facile comparisons of Canadian and American schooling systems Kathleen Gallagher opts instead for a rigorous analysis of the context specific features both the differences and similarities between urban cultures and urban schools in the two countries Gallagher re examines familiar urban issues facing these schools such as racism classism hetero sexism and religious fundamentalism in light of the theatre performances of diverse young people and their reflections upon their own creative work together By using theatre as a sociological lens emThe Theatre of Urban      Locality, Regeneration & Divers(c)ities Sarah Bennett, John H.
