Gender Studies In Architecture Space Power And Difference:

Gender Studies in Architecture Dörte Kuhlmann, 2014-04-11 Analyzing a range of ideas from biological evolutionary and anthropological theories to a variety of feminist psychoanalytic poststructuralist and constructivist discourses this book provides a comprehensive introduction to the problematics of gender and power in architectural and urban design Topics range from conceptions of postulated matriarchal architecture in Old Europe to contemporary technologies of control from the mechanisms of gaze to architectural performatives from the under representation of women in the planning profession to the integration of gender issues to the curriculum The particular strengths of the book lie in its inclusiveness and critical analysis It is not a partisan defence of feminism or any other theory but a critical introduction to the issues relating to gender Moreover the conclusions reach beyond a narrow gender studies perspective to social and ethical considerations that are unavoidable in any responsible architectural or urbanistic practice With its broad range and balanced analysis of different theories the book is suitable as an overview of gender studies in architecture and useful for any designer who is concerned with the social effects of the built environment

Gendered Approaches to Spatial Development in Europe Barbara Zibell, Doris Damjanovic, Ulrike Sturm, 2019-03-27 This book explores the extent to which gendered approaches are evident and effective in spatial development in selected European countries Beginning with an introduction to theories and concepts of gender space and development the book includes a brief historical review of gender in spatial planning and development throughout Europe in general and an overview of different national frameworks in European countries comparing legal organisational and cultural similarities and differences This is followed by a critical reflection on how simplifications and stereotypes of gender concepts are used in the practice of spatial development The main part of the book offers a transnational discussion of planning practices on selected thematic topics It starts with gender sensitivity in urban master planning and at neighbourhood level referring to different types of planning manuals Furthermore the book focuses on gender sensitive evaluation in urban planning as well as international agendas for sustainable development as a framework for a new generation of gender equality policies The chapter authors assert that climate change migration and austerity have threatened gender equality and therefore spatial development needs to be especially alert to gender dimensions The editors end with an outlook and suggestions for further action and research on gender issues in spatial development With inputs from some of Europe's leading thinkers on gender space and development this volume is designed to inspire students scholars and practitioners to reflect upon the contribution that gendered approaches can make in the various fields of spatial development and environmental planning

The Routledge History Handbook of Gender and the Urban Experience Deborah Simonton, 2017-02-03 Challenging current perspectives of urbanisation The Routledge History Handbook of Gender and the Urban Experience explores how our towns and cities have shaped and been shaped by cultural spatial and gendered influences This volume discusses gender in an urban context in European North American and colonial towns from the fourteenth to the twentieth century casting new light on the development of medieval and modern settlements across the globe Organised into six thematic parts covering economy space civic identity material culture emotions and the colonial world this book comprises 36 chapters by key scholars in the field It covers a wide range of topics from women and citizenship in medieval York to gender and tradition in nineteenth and twentieth century South African cities reframing our understanding of the role of gender in constructing the spaces and places that form our urban environment Interdisciplinary and transnational in scope this volume analyses the individual dynamics of each case study while also examining the complex relationships and exchanges between urban cultures It is a valuable resource for all researchers and students interested in gender urban history and their intersection and interaction throughout the past five centuries Region Simon Richards, Robert Schmidt III, Cagri Sanliturk, Falli Palaiologou, 2023-07-28 This book explores how the concept of region has evolved over time and shaped architectural culture and practice It questions what the words region and regional mean for architecture cities and landscapes past and present and speculates on the forms they might take in the future Region is explored in many thematic guises as a real geographical site of evolving socio economic activity as a mythical locus of enduring value as a gatekeeper of indigenous crafts and vernacular techniques as a site of architectural and artistic imagination as a repository of contested conflicted and mobile identities The contributing chapters take these themes from the theoretical and literary page through to architectural and urban practice and from the scale of the domestic hearth through to the ocean archipelago and international law enriching the long standing trope of viewing architectural regionalism purely as a matter of style Curated into four key thematic areas Theorised Regions Contested Regions Heritage Regions and Future Regions the book incorporates the values concerns and approaches of a truly diverse international community of scholars curators and practitioners as well as the design work of international students tasked to explore what region means to them Exploring Gender in Vernacular Architecture Jessica Ellen Sewell, 2025-02-03 In Exploring Gender in Vernacular Architecture Jessica Ellen Sewell considers the gender of those who create and shape spaces how gender ideology contributes to and manifests itself in built form and what research methods make the observation of gendered experience possible She discusses single gender mixed gender and queer spaces providing a comprehensive look at how gender influences the design and construction of those spaces how those spaces are used and the relationship between gender and the broader architectural landscape In her study Sewell also provides an expansive view of how gender intersects with other categories of power and difference such as race class and age and how this intersectionality contributes to the design and use of built spaces In addition to examining the spaces themselves Sewell explores research methods for studying gendered experiences in architecture She argues that traditional research methods in vernacular architecture studies which often focus on building based fieldwork should be complemented by other methods such as letters oral histories and diaries that expand the understanding of buildings beyond their construction date and reveal how those buildings have been used and represented over time Digging into primary records Sewell posits can help challenge our assumptions about who influences architecture and urban development illuminating the roles of women and others in the building and shaping of space Thoroughly researched yet accessible for scholars new to the study of vernacular architecture Exploring Gender in Vernacular Architecture bridges the gap between specialized scholarship and broader public understanding Students of architectural history gender studies and cultural history will find it a valuable resource not only for examining the relationship between gender and architecture but for engaging new methodological tools that may further their own research
