[With Plates, Including Portraits.]. Francis Trevelyan MILLER, Douglas MacArthur, 1951 General MacArthur Speeches and Reports 1908-1964, 2000-06-14 The two year search for General Douglas MacArthur's speeches and reports was truly a labor of love My Administrative Assistant Ellen Schaefer and I culled over 1 000 sources including memories biographies histories military magazines such as the Army and Air Force Journals unit histories

commercial magazines and newspapers Magazines included such publications as National Geographic Life Magazine and many esoteric less circulated literature such as Military Magazine Retired Officers Magazine Air Force Magazine and so many others We received guidance and assistance from such sources as the U S Military Academy the Engineering School at Ft Leavenworth the Command and General Staff School at Leavenworth the Army War College the MacArthur Archives Director James Zobel the Library of Congress the War Department the sources seemed endless We do believe we were able to capture all the major public speeches and reports covering MacArthur s truly productive years from 1908 through 1964 Contains more than 125 speeches reports It will be interesting to note MacArthur established his personality early in his military career and never veered from this His admonition from his Mother when MacArthur was a student at West Point was never cheat never lie never tattle Adhering to this edict MacArthur offered to resign from the Academy rather than answer questions from the Academy panel investigating hazing and harassment by a group of fellow students MacArthur continued to develop his hard line against political and military intrigue by resolving to always do what he believed right even if he knew no one was watching Further he was determined never to refuse to carryout the order of a senior officer never be insubordinate to constituted authority Duty, Honor, Country Douglas MacArthur, David Lawrence, George C. MacArthur and the American Century William M. Leary,2001-01-01 General Douglas MacArthur has been hailed as the greatest soldier in American history While not everyone would agree with that assessment there is no question that MacArthur played a prominent role in the emergence of the United States as a world power in the twentieth century A distinguished combat soldier during World War I and an innovative educator at West Point in the 1920s MacArthur became the army s chief of staff during the Great Depression He went abroad in the 1930s to prepare the Philippines for war His stand against the Japanese following Pearl Harbor made him a national hero and his subsequent campaign against Japanese forces in the Southwest Pacific only added to his reputation The Korean War gave MacArthur a final opportunity to display his military skills MacArthur and the American Century assembles for the first time a nuanced and full scrutiny of MacArthur s entire career Essays by such experts as Stanley L Falk and D Clayton James accompany materials by Dwight D Eisenhower and MacArthur himself providing analysis and evaluation of the immense impact this dramatic figure had on war peace and the American imagination
