Does My Head Look Big in This? Abdel Abdel-Fattah, The Routledge Companion to Literature and Social Justice Masood Ashraf Raja, Nick T. C. Lu, 2023-11-20 The Routledge Companion to Literature and Social Justice is a comprehensive and multi-purpose collection on this important topic. With contributors working in various fields, the Companion provides in-depth analyses of both the cumulative and emergent issues, obstacles, praxes, propositions, and theories of social justice. The first section offers a historical overview of major developments and debates in the field, while the following sections look in more detail at the key traditions and show how literature and theory can be applied as analytical tools to real-world inequalities and the impact of doing so. The contributors provide reviews of major theoretical traditions, including Marxism, feminism, Critical Race Theory, disability studies, and queer studies. They also share literary analyses of influential authors, including W. E. B. Du Bois, Yang Kui, Edwidge Danticat, Octavia Butler, and Rivers Solomon, amongst others. The final section considers future possibilities for theory and action of justice, drawing specifically from theories and knowledges in decolonial, Indigenous, environmental, and posthumanist studies. This authoritative volume draws on the intersections between literary studies and social movements in order to provide scholars, students, and activists alike with a complete collection of the most up-to-date information on both canonical and emerging texts and case studies globally.

Does My Head Look Big In This (2022 NE) Randa Abdel-Fattah, 2022 School is tough enough without throwing a hijab into the mix. Amal is a 16-year-old Melbourne teen with all the usual obsessions about boys, exams, chocolate, and magazines. She's also a Muslim struggling to honour the Islamic faith in a society that doesn't understand it. The story of her decision to shawl up and its attendant anxieties, like how much eyeliner to wear, is funny, surprising, and touching by turns. Exploring issues of faith and identity with the lightest of touches, this is a joyful exploration of what it means to be a Muslim teenager, a bright, articulate heroine true to herself and her faith.
