Readings of Dōgen's "Treasury of the True Dharma Eye" Steven Heine,2020-05-12 The Treasury of the True Dharma Eye Shōbōgenzō is the masterwork of Dōgen 1200-1253 founder of the Sōtō Zen Buddhist sect in Kamakura era Japan. It is one of the most important Zen Buddhist collections composed during a period of remarkable religious diversity and experimentation. The text is complex and compelling, famed for its eloquent yet perplexing manner of expressing the core precepts of Zen teachings and practice. This book is a comprehensive introduction to this essential Zen text, offering a textual, historical, literary, and philosophical examination of Dōgen's treatise. Steven Heine explores the religious and cultural context in which the Treasury was composed and provides a detailed study of the various versions of the medieval text that have been compiled over the centuries. He includes nuanced readings of Dōgen's use of inventive rhetorical flourishes and the range of East Asian Buddhist textual and cultural influences that shaped the work. Heine explicates the philosophical implications of Dōgen's views on contemplative experience and attaining and sustaining enlightenment, showing the depth of his distinctive understanding of spiritual awakening. Readings of Dōgen's Treasury of the True Dharma Eye will give students and other readers a full understanding of this fundamental work of world religious literature. Engaging Dogen's Zen Tetsuzen

Jason M. Wirth, Kanpu Bret W. Davis, Shudo Brian Schroeder,2017-01-17 How are the teachings of a thirteenth century master relevant today? Twenty contemporary writers unpack Dogen's words and show how we can still find meaning in his teachings. Zen Master Dogen, the thirteenth century founder of Japanese Soto Zen Buddhism, is widely regarded as one of the world's most remarkable spiritual thinkers. Dogen's influence on both Japanese and Western Zen Buddhism cannot be overstated. His writings, emphasizing the nonduality of practice and enlightenment, are vastly subtle, endlessly sophisticated, and renownedly challenging to read on one's own. This unique collection of essays opens up for the reader new pathways for connecting to and making use of Dogen's powerful teachings. Some of Soto Zen's leading scholars and practitioners offer a masterfully guided tour of Dogen's writings, organized around two key texts: Shushōgi, which is a classical distillation of the whole of Dogen's teachings, and Fukanzazengi, Dogen's universal instructions for Zen meditation. Along the way, the reader will gain an enriched understanding of the Zen practice and realization of shikantaza, or just sitting, and of the essence of Mahayana Buddhism, and a much deeper appreciation of this peerless master. Includes essays from Kosho Itagaki, Taigen Dan, Leighton Tenshin, Charles Fletcher Shudo, Brian Schroeder, Glen A. Mazis, David Loy, Drew Leder, Steven DeCaroli, Steve Bein, John Maraldo, Michael Schwartz, Tetsuzen Jason M. Wirth, Leah Kalmanson, Erin Jien McCarthy, Dainen, David Putney, Steven Heine, Graham Parkes, Mark Unno, Shudo Brian Schroeder, and Kanpu Bret W. Zen and the Practice of Teaching English Robert Tremmel,1999 This book represents the first serious attempt by an educator to combine the practice of teaching English with fundamental principles of Zen in an effort to help teachers achieve a new perspective on their professional lives It is a personal book based on personal knowledge inviting readers to consider the possibility that the foundations of teaching practice are the very foundations of life and that life inside and outside the classroom is more like one life than two Zen and the Practice of Teaching English originates in Robert Tremmel s struggles as a teacher and teacher educator His book reaches out and rests on three important grounding points that define his life as a teacher school because everything the author has to say is based on his daily work with students student teachers and secondary teachers professional knowledge because Tremmel believes no one can live fully as a professional without maintaining contact with and participating in ongoing conversations with other professionals spiritual practice which is connected in this book to teaching practice and all the practices of living Preservice teachers will come away from this book with a clearer understanding of their decision to teach and the disciplines and abilities they must cultivate for a solid beginning Experienced teachers will gain a deeper appreciation of their own commitment and accomplishments and a renewed sense of fellowship with their colleagues throughout the profession As Tremmel writes My purpose in writing this book is not to add to what I see as an already more than healthy and growing supply of scholarship about teaching Instead I want to focus on what I finally found in my own teaching practice that helped me start making sense of the confusion that was my own but that I know is felt also by others who have teaching in their blood

Dogen's Manuals of Zen Meditation Carl Bielefeldt,1988 Zen Buddhism is perhaps best known for its emphasis on meditation and probably no figure in the history of Zen is more closely associated with meditation practice than the thirteenth century Japanese master Dogen founder of the Soto school This study examines the historical and religious character of the practice as it is described in Dogen's own meditation texts introducing new materials and original perspectives on one of the most influential spiritual traditions of East Asian civilization The Soto version of Zen meditation is known as just sitting a practice in which through the cultivation of the subtle state of nonthinking the meditator is said to be brought into perfect accord with the higher consciousness of the Buddha mind inherent in all beings This study examines the historical and religious character of the practice as it is described in Dogen's own meditation texts introducing new materials and original perspectives on one of the most influential spiritual traditions of East Asian civilization Meditation & Reality Douglas A. Yun, 1999 In this collection of the best writing on teaching and teachers from the Harvard Educational Review authors discuss the multiple demands distractions desires and dilemmas that teachers face in their daily work Geologists study volcanoes for years yet cannot predict exactly which will be the next to erupt Meteorologists use highly advanced technology to study weather patterns but cannot forecast the weather with certainty Teachers can present the same lesson to two classes only to have it succeed one time and fail the next Why is there such uncertainty in these situations Because these are all complex systems In the complex world of teaching teachers face numerous unpredictable challenges from the dynamic interactions of teacher student curriculum school community and culture How do teachers manage to teach in such a complex world To answer this question the Editors of the Harvard Educational Review have collected the best writings on teaching published in the Review in The Complex World of Teaching Part One Inner Worlds explores the private aspects of teachers and students lives that although hidden have a great impact on teaching and learning Part Two Outer Worlds focuses on how powerful economic social political and cultural forces from outside the classroom shape the work of teachers and students Part Three The Complex World of Teaching illuminates how the intersection of the inner and outer worlds creates the dynamic complexity that is both the joy and the frustration of teaching The Complex World of Teaching refuses to reduce teaching to a set of recipes or to talk about teaching abstracted from practice The Editors have combined theoretical chapters with studies from individual classrooms written by teachers themselves to capture the true complexity of teaching Readers can join teachers as they recount their struggles and triumphs in the classroom pieces and then move to the theoretical pieces to analyze the larger forces that shape those moments Uche ,1994
