Illustrations were provided by Hablot Knight Browne Phiz There is some concern with the railways and the novel's conception and writing belong to the years of the railway boom 1844-47 The sea meanwhile becomes the image of things of an older fashion yet the dark and unknown that rolls round all the world The story concerns Paul Dombey the wealthy owner of the shipping company of the book's title whose dream is to have a son to continue his business The book begins when his son is born and Dombey's wife dies shortly after giving birth Following the advice of Mrs Louisa Chick his sister Dombey employs a wet nurse named Mrs Richards Toodle Dombey already has a six year old daughter Florence but bitter at her not having been the desired boy he neglects her continually One day Mrs Richards Florence and her maid Susan Nipper secretly pay a visit to Mrs Richard's house in Staggs's Gardens so that Mrs Richards can see her children During this trip Florence becomes separated from them and is kidnapped for a short time by Good Mrs Brown before being returned to the streets She makes her way to Dombey and Son's offices in the City and there is found and brought home by Walter Gay an employee of Mr Dombey who first introduces her to his uncle the navigation instrument maker Solomon Gills at his shop the Wooden Midshipman

Dombey and Son Charles Dickens, 2003-02-21 Mr Dombey the proud head of a shipping company is obsessed with the desire for a son so that his family may be entitled Dombey and Son Although constructed around a sombre and complex theme this tale is not without comedy These audio cassettes contain the complete and unabridged story

Dombey and Son by Charles Dickens, 2021-04-14 Well Sir said Doctor Parker Peps in a round deep sonorous voice muffled for the occasion like the knocker do you find that your dear lady is at all roused by your visit Stimulated as it were said the family practitioner faintly bowing at the same time to the Doctor as much as to say Excuse my putting in a word but this is a valuable connexion Mr Dombey was quite discomfited by the question He had thought so little of the patient that he was not in a condition to answer it He said that it would be a satisfaction to him if Doctor Parker Peps would walk upstairs again Good We must not disguise from you Sir said Doctor Parker Peps that there is a want of power in Her Grace the Duchess I beg your pardon I confound names I should say in your amiable lady That there is a certain degree of languor and a general absence of elasticity which we would rather not See interposed the family practitioner with another inclination of the head Quite so said Doctor Parker Peps which we would rather not see It would appear that the system of Lady Cankaby excuse me I should say of Mrs Dombey I confuse the names of cases So very numerous murmured the family practitioner can't be expected I'm sure quite wonderful if otherwise Doctor Parker Peps's West End practice Thank you said the Doctor quite so It would appear I was observing that the system of our patient has sustained a shock from which it can only hope to rally by a great and strong And vigorous murmured the family practitioner Quite so assented the Doctor and vigorous effort Mr Pilkins here who from his position of medical adviser in this family no one better qualified to fill that position I am sure Oh murmured the family practitioner Praise from Sir Hubert Stanley You are good enough returned Doctor Parker Peps to say so Mr Pilkins who from his position is best acquainted with the patient's constitution in its normal state an acquaintance very valuable to us in forming our opinions in these occasions is of opinion with me that Nature must be called upon to make a vigorous effort in this instance and that if our interesting friend the Countess of Dombey I beg your pardon Mrs Dombey should not be Able said the family practitioner To make said Doctor Parker Peps That effort said the family practitioner Successfully said they both together Then added Doctor Parker Peps alone and very gravely a crisis might arise which we should both sincerely deplore With that they stood for a few seconds looking at the ground Then on the motion made in dumb show of Doctor Parker Peps they went upstairs the family practitioner opening the room door for that distinguished professional and following him out with most obsequious politeness To record of Mr Dombey that he was not in his way affected by this intelligence would be to do him an injustice He was not a man of whom it could properly be said that he was ever startled or shocked but he certainly had a sense within him that if his wife should sicken and decay he would be very sorry and that he would find a something gone from among his plate and furniture and other household possessions which was well worth the having and could not be lost without sincere regret Though it would be a cool business like gentlemanly self possessed reg Dombey and Son ,2020-02-18 Dombey and Son (Classic Reprint) Charles Dickens,2017-05-14

Heroic Disobedience: The Forced Marriage Plot and the British Novel, 1747-1880 Leah Grisham, 2023-10-10 Heroic Disobedience The Forced Marriage Plot and the British Novel 1747-1880 shows the ways in which eighteenth and nineteenth century novels used what the author terms the forced marriage plot a plot arc in which a greedy father tries to force his daughter into a marriage she does not want but that would be financially expedient to himself to explore capitalism's detrimental impacts on women's right to autonomy As capitalist economic practices replaced mercantilism a woman's value was seen primarily in the economic sense That is men came to recognize that women especially young marriageable women could be used as objects of exchange between men Recognizing this phenomenon the novelists considered in Heroic Disobedience Samuel Richardson Charlotte Lennox Mary Robinson Charlotte Smith Jane Austen Charles Dickens Elizabeth Stone and Anthony Trollope depict the very specific ways in which women were raised to become willing pawns in this system Religious discourse conduct guides marriage and property laws wages lack of meaningful education and inheritance practices combined to leave women with no other options besides dependence on their patriarchs. Importantly, authors who use the forced marriage plot go beyond exposing women's subjugation by creating and celebrating heroically disobedient heroines who believe above all else that they have the right to determine their own futures, futures in which they are autonomous agents, not subjected objects. Dickens and the Virtual City Estelle Murail, Sara Thornton, 2017-10-14. This book explores the aesthetic practices used by Dickens to make the space which we have come to know as the Dickensian City. It concentrates on three very precise techniques for the production of social space: counter mapping, overlaying, and troping. The chapters show the scapes and writings which influenced him and the way he transformed them, packaged them, and passed them on for future use. The city is shown to be an imagined or virtual world, but with a serious aim for a serious game. Dickens sets up a workshop for the simulation of real societies and cities. This urban building with is transferable to other literatures and medial forms. The book offers vital understanding of how writing and image work in particular ways to recreate and re-enchant society and the built environment. It will be of interest to scholars of literature, media, film, urban studies, politics, and economics.
