Doing Right and Being Good David Oki Ahearn, Peter R. Gathje, 2005 Continuing the unbroken conversation on ethics that has endured across the Christian generations David Oki Ahearn and Peter R Gathje present Doing Right and Being Good For Ahearn and Gathje ethics is the critical reflection on morality focusing on our beliefs our practices our held values In addition to the book's wide reaching selected readings Ahearn and Gathje offer introductions to each chapter which provide extensive overviews and establish contexts for moral issues over which sincere Christians differ The authors examine two broad understandings of ethics that of doing right understanding the difference between right and wrong and being good specific personal traits Acknowledging a shared history between Protestant and Roman Catholic traditions this book takes both historical and ecumenical approaches to ethics Engaging and informational Doing Right and Being Good aims at providing constructive reflection and dialogue to all readers regardless of background Chapters are The Moral Person Sources of Christian Ethics Interpretations of Love and Justice Marriage Family and Sexuality Political Life and the Problem of Violence Stewardship Work Property and the Environment Christian Love at the Margins of Life David Oki Ahearn PhD an ordained member of the United Methodist Clergy serves as associate professor of religion and philosophy as well as chair of the division of humanities and social sciences at LaGrange College in LaGrange Georgia Peter Gathje PhD is associate professor of religion at Christian Brothers University in Memphis He also serves as chair for the department of religion and philosophy director of De LaSalle Center for Teaching and Religion and director of the peace studies program

The Community of the Weak Hans-Peter Geiser, 2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism the social the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story

Practicing the Kingdom Justin Bronson Barringer, Maria Russell Kenney, 2022-02-07 Throughout her academic career Christine D Pohl has helped the church rediscover practices that used to be central to its life like hospitality community and friendship Perhaps best known for her groundbreaking Making Room Recovering Hospitality as a Christian Tradition she has also contributed significantly to discussions on Christian community feminism and the academy and the practice of friendship Yet behind this lies a lifetime of lived theology that informs her life and her work both inside and outside the academy Containing biblical systematic and moral theology these essays are scriptural and liturgical multidisciplinary and missional Several of them could be described as offering essays of lived theology writing and reflecting from within years of action and contemplation They build upon particularly fruitful aspects of Pohl s work through expansion clarification and occasional disagreement A mix of scholars and practitioners colleagues former students and friends the contributors represent a wide variety of theoretical and practical expertise This volume honors Pohl most when its readers choose to take the wisdom within its pages and embody that in life together God and Country? M. Long,T. Wenger Sadd,Tracy Wenger Sadd,2016-04-30 This book brings together significant writings on Christianity and patriotism for a post September 11th world This is an exceptional collection of writings for students and universities to use as a source for guiding and informing discussion about Christianity and patriotism Traditionalism and Radicalism in the History of Christian Thought C. Simut,2010-09-27 This book is concerned with the presentation and analysis of certain dogmatic issues such as christology ecclesiology pastoral work anthropology faith and bioethics among many others all meant to illustrate how Christian thoughts stands between traditionalism and radicalism It is both a dogmatic study and a historical overview of the topic Creating Resistances: Pastoral Care in a Postcolonial World Melinda McGarrah Sharp,2019-10-01 Multiple forms of oppression injustice and violence today have roots in histories of colonialism This connection to the past feels familiar for some and less relevant for others Understanding and responding to these connections is more crucial than ever yet some resist rather than face this task directly Others resist oppressive postcolonial conditions Using intercultural stories and pastoral care scholarship this book charts pathways through five resistances not me not here not now not relevant not possible to awaken creative pastoral care in a postcolonial world McGarrah Sharp recommends practices that everyone can do believing in each other revisiting how histories are taught imagining more passable futures heeding prophetic poets and crossing borders with healthy boundaries The Black Church and Hip Hop Culture Emmett G. Price III,2011-11-10 Throughout the 1950s and 1960s the Black Church stood as the stronghold of the Black Community fighting for equality and economic self sufficiency and challenging its body to be self determined and self aware Hip Hop Culture grew from disenfranchised urban youth who felt that they had no support system or resources Impassioned with the same urgent desires for survival and hope that their parents and grandparents had carried these youth forged their way from the bottom of America s belly one rhyme at a time For many young people Hip Hop Culture is a supplement or even an alternative to the weekly dose of Sunday morning faith In this collection of provocative essays leading thinkers preachers and scholars from around the country confront both the Black Church and the Hip Hop Generation to realize their shared responsibilities to one another and the greater society Arranged into three sections this volume addresses key issues in the debate between two of the most significant institutions of Black Culture The first part From Civil Rights to Hip Hop explores the transition from one generation to another through the transmission or lack thereof of legacy and heritage Part II Hip Hop Culture and the Black

Church in Dialogue explores the numerous ways in which the conversation is already occurring from sermons to theoretical examinations and spiritual ponderings Part III Gospel Rap Holy Hip Hop and the Hip Hop Matrix clarifies the perspectives and insights of practitioners scholars and activists who explore various expressions of faith and the diversity of locations where these expressions take place In The Black Church and Hip Hop Culture pastors ministers theologians educators and laypersons wrestle with the duties of providing timely commentary critical analysis and in some cases practical strategies toward forgiveness healing restoration and reconciliation With inspiring reflections and empowering discourse this collection demonstrates why and how the Black Church must re engage in the lives of those who comprise the Hip Hop Generation
