Experiential Learning Exercises In Social Construction:

Experiential Learning Exercises in Social Construction Robert Cottor, 2004-01-01 the authors share with us a highly innovative array of experiential learning exercises These exercises inject continuous shots of adrenalin into the discourse of social construction We move beyond explication to action we directly experience the impact of the ideas we share in the living creation of constructionist worlds The authors demonstrate how within a short span fundamental ideas of meaning can be brought to life

Career Development and Systems Theory Wendy Patton, Mary McMahon, 2006-01-01 The 3rd edition of this classic book offers practitioners researchers and students a comprehensive introduction to and overview of career theory introduces the Systems Theory Framework of career development and demonstrates its considerable contemporary and innovative application to practice A number of authors have identified the framework as one of a small number of significant innovations in the career development literature The Systems Theory Framework of career development was developed to provide coherence to the career development field by providing a comprehensive conceptualisation of the many existing theories and concepts relevant to understanding career development It is not designed to be a theory of career development rather systems theory is introduced as the basis for an overarching or metatheoretical framework within which all concepts of career development described in the plethora of career theories can be usefully positioned and utilised in both theory and practice It has been applied to the career development of children adolescents and women Since its first publication the Systems Theory Framework has been the basis of numerous publications focusing on theoretical application and integration practice and research with a growing number of these by authors other than the framework developers Its application across cultures also has been emphasised The theoretical and practical unity of the Systems Theory Framework makes this book a worthy addition to the professional libraries of practitioners researchers and students new to or experienced in the field of career development

Power, Justice and Citizenship: The Relationships of Power Darian McBain, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2013 Who holds the power when considering environmental justice and global citizenship Citizenship is felt most strongly with those that we are closely connected with either by physicality or ideology In a world where connectivity is changing our perception of citizenship we consider who holds the power to bring about change This volume looks at the role played by various actors seeking or discouraging environmental justice We consider the role of actors ranging from individual citizens working at a grassroots level through to governments and the media We also look at the role that education has to play in environmental justice from the classrooms to policy directions at the United Nations Theories of environmental justice and citizenship are explored in conjunction with case studies to provide a thought provoking look at power relationships for environmental justice in the start of the 21st century www.congregationalresources.org

Richard Bass, 2004-12-30 An ever increasing number of resources compete for the attention of congregational leaders With a seemingly endless number of choices finding the best resource on a particular topic for a specific congregation is an often daunting challenge www.congregationalresources.org is an invaluable companion to the groundbreaking online version of Alban Institute's and Indianapolis Center for Congregations jointly researched and produced Congregational Resource Guide launched in 2001 and accessed by thousands of seekers each week The book conveniently and cogently puts the rich array of important resources into context by examining in depth the key books organizations Web sites and people that will help leaders gain an understanding of important issues facing their congregations The book features ten overviews of important topics by widely recognized experts in their fields including Amy Sherman on Community Ministry Tom Fischer on Congregational Health Lee Ramsey on Preaching Paul Chaffee on Leadership John Janka on Evaluation and Jean Trumbauer on Lay Ministry Each essay is accompanied by an annotated list of selected resources for researching further information Helpful guides for using these valuable resources to promote and encourage congregational understanding and transformation are also included
