Rather than selecting only certain portions of the New Testament to write about, Fr Charles has written a devotional for each and every passage of the New Testament. Fr Charles writes for the whole person; he is not afraid to use his sense of humor and he carefully relates the Bible not only to the individual's life but also to the life of the Church. At the end of each day's devotional, an appropriate Prayer is offered as well as Points for Further Reflection on the day's lesson. Each devotional concludes with a suggested Resolution to put into effect what the Spirit has stirred up in the heart of the reader during the course of his reading, meditation, and prayer.
