Writings on American History, 1922 Dictionary Catalog of the Research Libraries of the New York Public Library, 1911-1971 New York Public Library. Research Libraries, 1979 Networks, Narratives and Nations Marjet Brolsma, Alex Drace-Francis, Krisztina Lajosi-Moore, Enno Maessen, Marleen Rensen, 2025-10-01 Do narratives make nations and if so did networks make this happen The notion that national and other group identities are constructed and sustained by narratives and images has been widely postulated for several decades now This volume contributes to this debate with a particular emphasis on the networked transnational nature of cultural nation building processes in a comparative European and sometimes extra European context It gathers together essays that engage with objects of study ranging from poetry prose and political ideas to painting porcelain and popular song and which draw on examples in Icelandic Arabic German Irish Hungarian and French among other languages The contributors study transcultural phenomena from the medieval and early modern periods through to the modern and postmodern era frequently challenging conventional periodizations and analytical frameworks based on the idea of the nation state Cornelis Corneliszoon van Haarlem (1562-1638) Julie L. McGee, 2025-01-27 The book presents the first discussion of all the known prints executed after Cornelis designs and considers the following topics in relationship to the prints the engravers and publishers the print market the Latinists who provided the text for the prints and the Latin verses themselves A Real Van Gogh Henk Tromp, 2025-10-01 Vincent van Gogh's paintings and drawings are fabulously expensive Millions of people admire his work but are those masterpieces all genuine To this day the international art world struggles to separate the real Van Goghs from the fake ones and the key question addressed in this book is what may happen to art experts when they publicly voice their opinions on a particular Van Gogh or not The story starts with art expert J B de la Faille who discovered to his own bewilderment that he had included dozens of fake Van Goghs in his 1928 catalogue raisonné He wanted to set the record straight but met with strong resistance from art dealers collectors critics politicians and others marking the beginning of a fierce clash of interests that had seized the art world for many decades of the twentieth century In his fascinating account of the struggle for the genuine Vincent van Gogh Tromp shows the less attractive side of the art world His reconstruction of many such confrontations yields a host of intriguing and sometimes bewildering insights into the fates of art experts when they bring unwelcome news A Real Van Gogh shows how much resistance an art expert might meet when he discovers a fake Van Gogh The Hague Conferences and International Politics, 1898-1915 Maartje Abbenhuis, 2018-10-18 Beginning with the extraordinary rescript by Tsar Nicholas II in August 1898 calling the world's governments to a disarmament conference this book charts the history of the two Hague peace conferences of 1899 and 1907 and the third conference of 1915 that was never held using diplomatic correspondence newspaper reports contemporary publications and the papers of internationalist organizations and peace activists Focusing on the international media frenzy that developed around them Maartje Abbenhuis provides a
