Em Dang Noi Nao Can You Found Me:

Oblivion Patrick Holland, 2024-07-01 Before nightfall I rode a taxi through Narita Neon lit restaurants and bars and dark cypress The snow and a wind from the Sea of Japan had all but cleared the streets Cedar temples sat beneath grey skies Vending machines lit the wet and empty paths to their gates I told the driver to go on to the city Lyrical and atmospheric As the influence of the West falls away an unnamed narrator drifts through the East s floating world of non places chain hotels airports mega cities finalising often covert operations and deals When he meets the enigmatic and beautiful Tien a 21st century floating world courtesan he becomes involved with people and events that threaten his plan to escape life via various forms of oblivion Evocative and sparely written in the tradition of The Mary Smokes Boys this is a novel where the journey becomes the story filled with acute observation desire and dreams Praise for Patrick Holland s writing There is a directness and sparseness to the prose the slow meditative tension calls to mind the dark romance of Greene s The Quiet American

Jessica Au Holland is quite simply one of the best prose stylists working in Australia today Matthew Condon War Of Ideas Robert W Chandler, 2019-03-20 This book describes and appraises American use of propaganda in Vietnam 1965 1972 as an instrument of foreign policy In an effort to point out pitfalls to be avoided and successful techniques worthy of emulation in future psychological operations the case study shows how some proven and time honored prescriptions for effective propaganda were observed in Vietnam and how many others were ignored Accordingly strengths and weaknesses and successes and failures are highlighted Ninety five illustrations and numerous quotations of American leaflets and posters are included These were selected to provide the reader a feeling or flavor of the propaganda campaign 27000
