The World Is Charged Daniel Westover, William Wright, 2016-07-14 The World Is Charged Poetic Engagements with Gerard Manley Hopkins is the first book to demonstrate the centrality of Gerard Manley Hopkins as an influence among contemporary poets

Expressive Networks Matthew Kilbane, 2025-06-10 Expressive Networks convenes an urgent conversation on digital media and the social life of contemporary poetry Tracing how poems circulate through online spaces and how capitalized platforms have come to pattern the reading and writing of poetry contributors emphasize both the expressivist cast of digital literary culture and the deep running ambivalence that characterizes aesthetic and critical responses to platformed cultural production The volume features chapters on Pan African spoken word programs Singaporean Facebook groups decolonial hemispheric networks and Japanese media critical poetries as well as platforms such as Twitter X Instagram and Amazon Though contributors write from a variety of methodological positions and address themselves to a range of archives they share the primary conviction that the impact of Web 2.0 on literary practice is far reaching far from self evident and far more variegated and unpredictable than easy summations of social media's influence suggest Expressive Networks asks after poetry's present and future by examining what poems themselves express about the social make up of networked platforms Edited by Matthew Kilbane with contributions from Cameron Awkward Rich Micah Bateman Andrew Campana Sumita Chakraborty Scott Challener C. R. Grimmer Tess McNulty Michael Nardone Seth Perlow Anna Preus Susanna Sacks Carly Schnitzler Melanie Walsh and Samuel Caleb Wee

The Contemporary Narrative Poem Steven P. Schneider, 2012-12-15 Over the past thirty years narrative poems have made a comeback against the lyric approach to poetry that has dominated the past century Drawing on a decade of conferences and critical seminars on the topic The Contemporary Narrative Poem examines this resurgence of narrative and the cultural and literary forces motivating it Gathering ten essays from poet critics who write from a wide range of perspectives and address a wide range of works the collection transcends narrow conceptions of narrative antinarrative and metanarrative The authors ask several questions What formal strategies do recent narrative poems take What social cultural and epistemological issues are raised in such poems How do contemporary narrative poems differ from modernist narrative poems In what ways has history been incorporated into the recent narrative poetry How have poets used the lyric within narrative poems How do experimental poets redefine narrative itself through their work And what role does consciousness play in the contemporary narrative poem The answers they supply will engage every poet and student of poetry paradoxical contradictory impossible about the experiences of a Marine fighting the Iraq War and the jarring transition that comes with returning home to find the war reduced to background noise for a remote civilian population Bruce Lack s forceful authentic poetry confronts the human cost of sending young men and women to fight a war of questionable justification against an insurgency unbound by rules of engagement Lack s poems engage honestly with the frustration of fighting an elusive ruthless enemy the guilt of surviving when others do not and the residual anger that may never leave the generation of veterans of the War on Terror Written in the voice of the Marine but directed toward and accessible to the civilian Service is a book that seeks to close the communication gap between the two twenty four winner of the Walt McDonald First Book Prize in Poetry Crazy Horse ,2001 American Book Publishing Record R.R.
