Hartung, 2015-12-07 This study establishes age as a category of literary history delineating age in its interaction with gender and narrative genre Based on the historical premise that the view of ageing as a burden emerges as a specific narrative in the late eighteenth century the study highlights how the changing experience of ageing is shaped by that of gender By reading the Bildungsroman as a coming of age novel the book asks how the telling of a life in time affects individual age narratives Bringing together the different perspectives of age and disability studies the book argues that illness is already an important issue in the Bildungsroman's narratives of ageing This theoretical stance provides new interpretations of canonical novels visiting authors such as Johann Wolfgang Goethe Frances Burney Maria Edgeworth Jane Austen Charles Dickens George Eliot Samuel Beckett and Jonathan Franzen Drawing on the link between age and illness in the Bildungsroman's age

narratives the genre of dementia narrative is presented as one of the directions which the Bildungsroman takes after its classical period Applying these theoretical perspectives to canonical novels of the nineteenth century and to the new genre of dementia narrative the volume also provides new insights into literary and genre history This book introduces a new theoretical approach to cultural age studies and offers a comprehensive analysis of the connection between narratology literary theory gender and age studies

Forgotten Marlene Goldman, 2017-11-07 Since the 1860s long before scientists put a name to Alzheimer's disease Canadian authors have been writing about age related dementia Originally most of these stories were elegies designed to offer readers consolation Over time they evolved into narratives of gothic horror in which the illness is presented not as a normal consequence of aging but as an apocalyptic transformation Weaving together scientific cultural and aesthetic depictions of dementia and Alzheimer's disease Forgotten asserts that the only crisis associated with Canada's aging population is one of misunderstanding Revealing that turning illness into something monstrous can have dangerous consequences Marlene Goldman seeks to identify the political and social influences that have led to the gothic disease model and its effects on society Examining the works of authors such as Alice Munro Michael Ignatieff Jane Rule and Caroline Adderson alongside news stories and medical and historical discussions of Alzheimer's disease Goldman provides an alternative person centred perspective to the experiences of aging and age related dementia Deconstructing the myths that have transformed cognitive decline into a corrosive fantasy Forgotten establishes the pivotal role that fictional and non fictional narratives play in cultural interpretations of disease

Kokomo Kid Still Has Something to Say Cheryl Soden Moreland,2019-10-31 KOKOMO KID Still Has Something to Say THE SEQUEL is from the same writer who authored KOKOMO KID Reflections of Growing Up in Indiana s City of Firsts Cheryl Soden Moreland s second book is a continuation of growing up not only in Kokomo with her grandparents as guardians but also delves more into the childhood visits she had with her parents and siblings in Indianapolis historic and popular Fountain Square neighborhood Cheryl gives glimpses into the personalities of those she grew up with while telling of the places she frequented in Indiana s capital city along with her experiences of sharing her days and nights with those closest to her This book is intended for anyone who has ever been a child for anyone who has made memories during their childhood That would include just about all of us Whether the moments we have created and recall are ones we cherish or would soon rather forget this book might help you to revive some of those beloved memories held deep which may have been lost in time and place You may be able to relive some of your own past that was forgotten holding close the best of moments while overlooking even letting go of the worst of times It is in the understanding and ability to empathize with not only those who came before us decades ago who had our best interests in mind and heart but also to come to terms with ourselves and how we perceive the child we were yesterday to the adult we have become today No matter how many lemons we have been dealt with while growing up just take them and turn them into pitchers of lemonade Extract the sweetness from your life by adding your own sugar to the sour Make it palatable That is what this author has done showing how life even with all its ups and downs and sometimes wild roller coaster rides is still a pretty good gig It s not always wrapped tightly and neatly with a big beautiful bow so it is up to each of us to make our little world what we want it to be Continue walking along that sometimes crooked yellow brick road to find the life that has been paved just for you An excerpt from between these covers I looked over at the front yard and suddenly felt like I was in a dream experiencing a replay of a piece of my past that created smiles and tears at the same time I was seeing Baby Brother having died just four months before Daddy running around the side of the house to the backyard with his toy gun in hand either chasing me or being chased by me I heard our screams and laughter while seeing Lil Sis and my other brother playing outside too with Big Sis sitting on the front porch with Mom and Dad I felt all was well as it was before or as any child could imagine their life to be at that innocent stage with everyone happy and healthy in their youth with so much life to look forward to
