Documents in Early Christian Thought Maurice Wiles, Maurice F. Wiles, Mark Santer, 1975 Extracts from the writings of the Early Christian fathers covering the main areas of Christian thought The Spirit of Early Christian Thought Robert Louis Wilken, 2003-01-01 Focusing on major figures such as St Augustine and Gregory of Nyssa as well as a host of less well known thinkers Robert Wilken the author of The First Thousand Years A Global History of Christianity chronicles the emergence of a specifically Christian intellectual tradition He provides an introduction to early Christian thought on topics including early Christian worship Christian poetry and the spiritual life the Trinity Christ the Bible and icons and shows that the energy and vitality of early Christianity arose from within the life of the Church While early Christian thinkers drew on the philosophical and rhetorical traditions of the ancient world it was the versatile vocabulary of the Bible that loosened their tongues and minds and allowed them to construct the world anew intellectually and spiritually These thinkers were not seeking to invent a world of ideas Wilken shows but rather to win the hearts of men and women and to change their lives Early Christian thinkers set in place a foundation that has endured Their writings are an irreplaceable inheritance and Wilken shows that they can still be heard as living voices within contemporary culture Work and Worship Matthew Kaemingk, Cory B. Willson, 2020-11-17 The modern chasm between secular work and sacred worship has had a devastating impact on Western Christianity Drawing on years of research ministry and leadership experience Kaemingk and Willson explain why Sunday morning worship and Monday morning work desperately need to inform and impact one another Together they engage in a rich biblical theological and historical exploration of the deep and life giving connections between labor and liturgy In so doing Kaemingk and Willson offer new ways in which Christian communities can live seamless lives of work and worship Inventing the Individual Larry Siedentop, 2014-10-20 Here in a grand narrative spanning 1 800 years of European history a distinguished political philosopher firmly rejects Western liberalism s usual account of itself its emergence in opposition to religion in the early modern era Larry Siedentop argues instead that liberal thought is in its underlying assumptions the offspring of the Church It is a magnificent work of intellectual psychological and spiritual history It is hard to decide which is more remarkable the breadth of learning displayed on almost every page the infectious enthusiasm that suffuses the whole book the riveting originality of the central argument or the emotional power and force with which it is deployed David Marquand New Republic Larry Siedentop has written a philosophical history in the spirit of Voltaire Condorcet Hegel and Guizot At a time when we on the left need to be stirred from our dogmatic slumbers Inventing the Individual is a reminder of some core values that are pretty widely shared James Miller The Nation In this learned subtle enjoyable and digestible work Siedentop has offered back to us a proper version of ourselves He has explained us to ourselves A magisterial timeless yet timely work Douglas Murray The Spectator Like the best books Inventing the Individual both teaches you something new and makes you want to argue with it Kenan Malik The Independent Documents of the Rise of Christianity Kevin W. Kaatz, 2019-03-14 An introduction to the history of early Christianity this reference provides roughly 60 primary source documents from the first five centuries of the Christian Era each accompanied by explanatory material Christianity has been one of the most powerful influences on world history and for this reason the world of the early Christians figures prominently in film fiction and popular culture The first centuries of Christianity provided the foundation for the faith institutions of today this book examines the history of early Christianity through its use of primary texts written by early Christians In doing so it helps readers to understand that multiple sects of Christianity competed for dominance and it sheds light on the struggles of early Christians that their differences entailed The book covers the first five centuries of the Christian Era with sections devoted to each century Some 60 primary source documents appear within those sections and each is accompanied by background information This chronological arrangement helps readers to understand how Christianity evolved over time and it provides insights into the theological debates and persecutions that marked the lives of early Christians and characterized the early Church

The Apocryphal Gospels and Other Documents Relating to the History of Christ Benjamin Harris Cowper, 1897 The apocryphal Gospels, and other documents relating to the history of Christ, tr., with notes, references and prolegomena by B.H. Cowper, 1897 *The Apocryphal Gospels and Other Documents Relating to the History of Christ. The Apocryphal Gospels and other Documents relating to the History of Christ. Translated from the originals in Greek, Latin, Syriac, etc. With notes, scriptural references and prolegomena Benjamin Harris COWPER, 1870 Caesar and the Lamb, Second Edition George Kalantzis, 2025-05-30 Through the available patristic writings Caesar and the Lamb focuses on the attitudes of the earliest Christians on war and military service Kalantzis provides the reader with many new translations of pre Constantinian texts and tells the story of the struggle of the earliest church to bear witness to the nations that enveloped them as they transformed the dominant narratives of citizenship loyalty freedom power and control Kalantzis examines writings on war and military service in the first three centuries of the Christian church in an organized manner but the ways the communities of Christ at the margins of power and society thought of themselves and the state are not presented here through the lens of antiquarian curiosity At the heart of Caesar and the Lamb is a desire to understand the world in which Christianity arose and to ask questions of the past that may help us understand the early character of the Christian faith with the hope that such an enterprise will also help us evaluate its expression in our own time

Existential Theology Hue Woodson, 2020-09-29 Existential Theology An Introduction offers a formalized and comprehensive examination of the field of existential theology in order to distinguish it as a unique field of study and view it as a measured synthesis of the concerns of Christian existentialism Christian humanism and Christian philosophy with the preoccupations of proper existentialism and a series of unfolding themes from Augustine to Kierkegaard To do this Existential Theology attends to the field through the exploration of genres the European traditions in French Russian and German schools of thought counter traditions in liberation feminist and womanist approaches and postmodern traditions located in anthropological political and ethical approaches While the cultural contexts inform how each of the selected philosopher theologians present genres of existential theology other unique genres are examined in theoretical and philosophical contexts particularly through a selected set of theologians philosophers thinkers and theorists that are not generally categorized theologically By assessing existential theology through how it manifests itself in genres this book brings together lesser known figures well known thinkers and figures that are not generally viewed as existential theologians to form a focused understanding of the question of the meaning of existential theology and what existential theology looks like in its varying forms Byways in Early Christian Literature Adam Fyfe Findlay,1923 The History of Early Christian Literature Hermann Freiherr von Soden,1906 Early Christianity Ian Hazlett,1991 Christian Thought Charles Force Deems,1885 Christian Thought ,1885 Leaders of Early Christian Thought Sydney Herbert Mellone,1954 Beginnings of Christianity: The acts of the Apostles Frederick John Foakes-Jackson,Kirsopp Lake,1920 The Early Christian Books William John Ferrar,1919
