Bubba's Rules for Country Living Joseph R Miller ,2011-06-25 Bubba's Rules for Country Living comes from my own experience at the country Store at Lake Kickapoo in Northern Archer County in North Texas I moved to a small place at the Lake when disability forced me away from medical practice A wonderful life awaited me I was born in Ohio and raised all over the Midwest but had the lasting good fortune to move to Texas and to marry South My mother acted Yankee nearly all her life even when she lived with us at Kickapoo but my father countered her harshness with a Welsh sense of humor that fit in no matter where he was or who was listening His stories had a cadence to them a rhythm that rivaled what I heard at Kickapoo Listening to him when I was a child I learned that art as well Not like my father never that grand But I could tell a story and I could listen without interrupting or looking away or letting my attention wander And those wonderful men at the store at Kickapoo accepted me They invited me to sit at the table labeled Stammtisch and allowed as how if there happened to be a pause that signaled the end of a story and I could jump in fast enough I might could tell a story of my own Just might could mind you Nothing was certain at the table labeled Stammtisch at the store at Kickapoo except Bubba's rules for living

The Young Landlords Walter Dean Myers, 1989-10-01 If you were looking for a real ghetto dump you couldn't beat The Stratford Arms There was Askia Ben Kenobi throwing karate chops upstairs Petey Darden making booze downstairs and Mrs Brown grieving for Jack Johnson who'd died for the third time in a month and not a rent payer in the bunch Still when Paul Williams and the Action Group got the Arms for one dollar they thought they had it made But when their friend Chris was arrested for stealing stereos and Dean's dog started biting fire hydrants and Gloria started kissing being a landlord turned out to be a lot more work than being a kid

Bent Poles, Happy Souls Tom Friedemann, 2022-05-24 The author logged his first fish in 1957 when he was just 9 years old and has since been journaling his fishing trips throughout his entire life Six decades of documenting the accounts of each trip has resulted in numerous sweet stories that naturally come from spending time on the water with family members and good friends in some of the most beautiful places on earth In addition to these heart warming stories the reader will be exposed to a wealth of fishing knowledge and homespun philosophy sprinkled in with some humorous accounts of his interactions with other fishermen and dealing with some unexpected situations that he's experienced during his sixty plus years of pursuing those mysterious marine creatures that occupy the other seventy one percent of our planet
