

Presentation of FISH! Philosophy

- Show video and go over the four principles.
- What is The FISH! Philosophy? 4 simple, interconnected practices:
  1. Be There is being emotionally present for people. It's a powerful message of respect that improves communication and strengthens relationships.
  2. Play taps into your natural way of being creative, enthusiastic and having fun. Play is the spirit that drives the curious mind, as in "Let's play with that idea!" It's a mindset you can bring to everything you do.
  3. Make Their Day is finding simple ways to serve or delight people in a meaningful, memorable way. It's about contributing to someone else's life, not because you want something out of it, but because that's the person you want to be.
  4. Choose Your Attitude means taking responsibility for how you respond to what life throws at you. Once you are aware that your choice impacts everyone around you, you can ask yourself, "Is my attitude helping my team or my customers? Is it helping me to be the person I want to be?"
- Through The FISH! Philosophy, we build stronger relationships with the team members we work with, the customers we serve, the students we teach and the people we love.

Best Practices of Award-Winning Elementary School Principals Sandra Harris, 2005-03-23 Using survey results and contributions from 35 award winning elementary school principals nationwide this essential resource examines over 100 field based practices recognized as the best for the elementary school principalship Stepping Outside Your Comfort Zone Lessons for School Leaders Nelson Beaudoin, 2014-01-09 This book proves that great things can happen when school leaders refuse to settle for business as usual You can achieve success for your schools and students if you steer clear of the familiar and the comfortable With over 34 years of experience in educational leadership Nelson Beaudoin was Maine's 2000 NASSP Principal of The Year His book demonstrates how to generate school wide enthusiasm for replacing timeworn routines and procedures give students a voice and personalize the learning process initiate innovative programs and practices implement comprehensive school reform nurture and inspire your faculty and have fun at work and let your humanity show Affective Teacher Education Patrice R. LeBlanc, Nancy P. Gallavan, 2009-03-16 Affective Teacher Education is one of the first books to provide teacher educators classroom teachers school administrators and teacher candidates with research and recommendations related to affective education All teachers want to become professional educators they want find satisfaction and reward in their chosen careers Likewise all teachers want to show their students in all grade levels and in all subject areas how to acquire apply and appreciate appropriate dispositions or outlooks related to the course content and as a community of learners This book guides and supports teachers to fulfill these two goals Each chapter explores a different aspect of affective education and offers the reader useful suggestions to prompt self assessment professional conversations and developmental activities Affective Teacher Education helps teachers to visualize teaching and learning holistically linking the knowledge skills and dispositions that students need to know do and feel to achieve in school and become lifelong learners Becoming Salmon Marianne Elisabeth Lien, 2015-06-30 Becoming Salmon is the first ethnographic account of salmon aquaculture the most recent turn in the human history of animal domestication In this careful and nuanced study Marianne Elisabeth Lien explores how the growth of marine domestication has blurred traditional distinctions between fish and animals recasting farmed fish as sentient beings capable of feeling pain and subject to animal welfare legislation Drawing on fieldwork on and off salmon farms Lien follows farmed Atlantic salmon through contemporary industrial husbandry exposing how salmon are bred to be hungry globally mobile and alien in their watersheds of origin Attentive to both the economic context of industrial food production and the materiality of human animal relations this book highlights the fragile and contingent relational practices that constitute salmon aquaculture and the multiple ways of becoming salmon that emerge as a result Humans, Animals and Biopolitics Kristin Asdal, Tone Druglito, Steve Hinchliffe, 2016-07-01 Human animal co existence is central to a politics of life how we order societies and to debates about who we humans think we are In other words our ways of understanding and ordering human animal relations have economic and political implications and affect peoples everyday lives By bringing together historically oriented approaches and contemporary ethnographies which engage with science and technology studies STS this book reflects the multi sited multi species multi logic and multiple ways in which lives are and have been assembled disassembled practised and possibly policed and politicized Instead of asking only how control and knowledge are and have been extended over life the chapters in this book also look at what happens when control fails at practices which defy orders escape detection fail to produce or only loosely hang together In doing so the book problematises and extends the Foucauldian notion of biopolitics that has been such a central analytical concept in studies of human animal relations and provides a unique resource of cases and theoretical refinements regarding the ways in which we live together with more than human others FAO Aquaculture Bulletin ,1970
