Applications of Service Learning in Higher Education Watson, Sandy White, 2024-03-22 In higher education a pressing issue has emerged how to authentically connect academic pursuits with real world challenges The last decade has witnessed an escalating call for heightened interaction between universities and the real world Demands have grown for higher education institutions to instill democratic citizenship and address students moral development In response to this rise in demand there has been a notable shift toward emphasizing service learning within academia As educators grapple with the imperative to seamlessly integrate theory and practice Applications of Service Learning in Higher Education steps into the forefront delving into the myriad applications of service learning to effectively address this critical issue Applications of Service Learning in Higher Education examines the complexities surrounding service learning in higher education At its core the book aims to showcase concrete examples of successful service learning applications acting as a catalyst for the integration of this transformative pedagogy into the academic fabric Beyond the surface the book delves into the intricate planning execution and assessment stages of service learning projects whether manifested within local communities or on an international scale It seeks to fill notable knowledge gaps particularly in less explored regions like Latin America and the Caribbean and underscores the significance of multidisciplinary experiences As the narrative unfolds the book addresses the symbiotic relationship between service learning and students programs of study transforming communities into vibrant classrooms where learning transcends traditional boundaries

COVID-19 and Higher Education in the Global Context Ravichandran Ammigan, Roy Y. Chan, Krishna Bista, 2020-10-01 COVID 19 and Higher Education in the Global Context Exploring Contemporary Issues and Challenges addresses the lasting impact of the novel coronavirus COVID 19 in the higher education sector and offers insights that inform policy and practice Framed in a global context this timely book captures a wide variety of topics including student mobility global partnerships and collaboration student health and wellbeing enrollment management employability and graduate education It is designed to serve as a resource for scholar practitioners policymakers and university administrators as they reimagine their work of comparative and international higher education in times of crisis The collection of chapters assembled in this volume calls for a critical reflection on the opportunities and challenges that have emerged as a result of the global pandemic and provides as a basis for how tertiary education systems around the world can learn from past experiences and shared viewpoints as institutions recalibrate operations innovate programs and manage change on their respective campuses Global Citizenship, Common Wealth and Uncommon Citizenships ,2018-08-16 This set of essays critically analyze global citizenship by bringing together leading ideas about citizenship and the commons in this time that both needs and resists a global perspective on issues and relations Education plays a significant role in how we come to address these issues and this volume will contribute to ensuring that equity global citizenship and the common wealth provide platforms from which we might engage in transformational collective work The authors address the global significance of debates and struggles about belonging and abjection solidarity and rejection identification and othering as well as love and hate Global citizenship as a concept and a practice is now being met with a dangerous call for insularism and a protracted ethno nationalism based on global economic imperialism movements for white supremacy and miscegenation various forms of religious extremism and identity politics but which antithetically also comes from the anti globalization movement focused on building strong sustainable communities We see a taming of citizens that contributes to the taming of what we understand as the public sphere and the commons the places of cultural natural and intellectual resources that are shared and not privately owned The work of global citizenship education is distinguishable from the processes of a deadly globalization or destruction of the world that responds to the interlocking issues that make life on the planet precarious for human and non humans everywhere albeit an unequal precarity This book is an invitation into a conversation that explores and makes visible some of the hidden chasms of oppression and inequity in the world It is meant to provoke both argument and activism as we work to secure common spaces that are broadly life sustaining Contributors are Ali A Abdi Sung Kyung Ahn Chouaib El Bouhali Xochilt Hernandez Carrie Karsgaard Marlene McKay Michael O Sullivan Christina Palech Karen Pashby Karen J Pheasant Neganigwane Thashika Pillay Ashley Rerrie Grace J Rwiza Toni Samek Lynette Shultz Harry Smaller Crain Soudien Derek Tannis and Irene Friesen Wolfstone European Higher Education at the Crossroads Adrian Curaj, Peter Scott, Lazăr Vlasceanu, Lesley Wilson, 2012-03-18 Romania hosts the 2012 Bologna European Higher Education Area Ministerial Conference and the Third Bologna Policy Forum In preparation for these meetings The Executive Agency for Higher Education Research Development and Innovation Funding UEFISCDI organised the Future of Higher Education Bologna Process Researchers Conference FOHE BPRC in Bucharest on 17-19 October 2011 with the support of the European University Association EUA and the Romanian National Committee for UNESCO The conference brought the voices of researchers into international level policy making in higher education The results of the conference are presented in this book Until now empirical evidence supporting policies and reforms in higher education has often been a matter of local or regional focus The development of a pan European process in higher education policy drives a need to explore wider research topics on which to base policies This book offers an unprecedented opportunity for higher education researchers to interact and contribute to the political process shaping the European Higher Education Area EHEA and to national policy agendas in more than 100 participant countries for the 2012 ministerial events The book collects more than 50 articles
