and an Irishman is the story of Pat Nee's life as an Irish immigrant and Southie son, a Marine and convicted IRA gun smuggler and a former rival turned associate of James Whitey Bulger. His narrative transports readers into the criminal underworld, taking them inside preparation for armored car heists, gang wars and revenge killings. Nee details his evolution from tough street kid to armed robber to dangerous potential killer, disclosing for the first time how he used his underworld connections as a secret operative for the Irish Republican Army. For years Pat smuggled weapons and money from the United States to Ireland in the bottoms of coffins behind false panels of vans, leading up to a transatlantic shipment of seven and a half tons of munitions aboard the fishing trawler Valhalla. No other Southie underworld figure can match Pat's reputation for resolve and authenticity.
