Jordan, 2012-09-18 I have been driven to my knees many times by the overwhelming conviction that I had no place else to go Abraham Lincoln Pray without ceasing 1 Thessalonians 5:17 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood but against principalities against powers against rulers of the darkness of this world against spiritual wickedness in high places Ephesians 6:12 Forty Four Prayers for the 44th President The Book That Will Keep The United States On Its Knees for the President Motivated by a driving need for an economic revival in the United States but with a clear understanding that spiritual revival is a precursor to economic revival since we are limited by our humanity in what we can accomplish solely by our own abilities but that our scope and capacities for accomplishments are multiplied exponentially when our lives are spiritually enforced through prayer Recognizing not only that history has been made with the election of the country's first African American President Barack Obama but that the office of president as leader of the free world carries a solemn responsibility not only to lead in the national economic recovery but also to be a moral barometer championing the spiritual revival that is an antecedent to sustainable economic revival in the United States Beginning at the ground level by praying for wisdom and knowledge Forty Four Prayers for the 44th President builds upon forty four areas that should be a focus of prayer for the President as he looks heavenward on a daily basis for strength for the task at hand and courage for the journey The book covers many important areas of prayer for the President such as prayer for protection faith family morality marriage jobs patience humility and listening One of the most important steps is for the nation at large to recognize the need for prayer and the power of the God to whom we pray It is here on the prayer altar that the President and every other citizen in the United States will find divine guidance and protection Where the nation must reflect on where it came from and seek impetus in where it will go Prayer is a no spin territory We either believe in the power of prayer to the most high God or we do not In the United States we must start with rebuilding the walls of Jerusalem such as integrity moral values and leave a legacy based on those values we hold so dear As a dedicated Christian Beverley P Jordan believes strongly in the power of prayer protecting the United States and guiding its constituents More so she believes that Presidents strongest victories will come when he spends time on his knees The greatest revival and change in which we can believe in the history of America took place more than 150 years ago in the 1850s One day Price and Orr report Mr Jeremiah Lanphier answered a call to action and he started a prayer meeting in New York City It began with six persons and then grew to hundreds and then thousands then spread across every state in America It is reported that people regained hope and productivity jobs increased as the benefits of spiritual revival overflowed into secular and economic revival Read her book and find out for yourself how Forty Four Prayers for the 44th President will propel each and everyone of you into action first on your knees and then towards the revival we so desperately need This inspirational prayer book was written as a testament of her faith and belief in the power of prayer as she witnessed the tremendous mile stone of the first African American President she felt that she could make her small contribution through prayer Forty four Prayers for the 44th President is dedicated to President and Mrs Obama and family Beverley P Jordan hopes that they will feel secure knowing that they are being prayed for frequently and consistently Quicklet on Barack Obama's Dreams From My Father Abdul Montaqim, 2012-02-12 ABOUT THE BOOK The first time I saw a news report about Barack Obama was well before he became the first black President of the United States of America And in this book Dreams from My Father A Story of Race and Inheritance Obama takes the reader back to those not too distant days when the world was completely different Despite his obvious agreeable qualities I was one of those people who did not believe Obama would become the Democratic Party s nomination for president And I certainly did not believe he could be president Not once did I imagine that so many millions of Americans regardless of race or creed were to paraphrase Obama himself ready to vote for a divided soul the ghostly image of the tragic mulatto trapped between two worlds to be their president But they did And the rest as they say is black and white history MEET THE AUTHOR Abdul Montaqim is a journalist based in London and has been working in the media since 1989 Among the more well known titles he has written for are The Guardian newspaper Time Out magazine and the International Business Times website He has edited a number of local and community newspapers magazines and websites and has over the course of his career worked for some of the largest publishers in Europe including Emap LLP and Mirror Group Newspapers Abdul has also worked outside of the United Kingdom moving to Abu Dhabi for a year to work on the first national daily newspaper in United Arab Emirates The National and he has consulted for media companies in Bangladesh where he was born Abdul briefly worked for a New York headquartered cable television channel called AsiaNet as a news editor and realised that although he loves researching writing and other technical parts of a journalist s job he does not like presenting preferring to be behind the camera or back in the studio He also realised that although reporting a story through the medium of television is obviously different from telling it through a newspaper or magazine the heart and mind of every media company is researching and writing In his spare time Abdul likes to spend time with his family cooking eating watching films listening to music reading and writing When he goes out he likes to watch movies at the best cinemas see live music performances and eat at good restaurants He also loves gardening fishing and going for long walks EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK Dreams from My Father A Story of Race and Inheritance is Barack Obama's ode to his early life which was varied and exotic to say the least and would have been challenging for any child He made the decision to write the book after receiving an advance from a publisher some time after he had been elected president of the Harvard Law Review the first African American to hold the position Dreams from My Father was first published in 1995 in the style of a memoir and marked the initial expression of the young Democrat's political ambition Obama was aged only 34 at the time and was gaining a reputation as a community activist a civil rights lawyer and a university lecturer And in 2004 after almost a decade of considerable political success and in the run up to being voted the Senator for Illinois Obama decided to re publish the book for a second time In his introduction he said he originally wrote the book with the belief that the story of my family and my efforts to understand that story might speak in some way to the fissures of race that have characterized the American experience as well as the fluid state of identity the leaps through time the collision of cultures that mark our modern life Buy a copy to keep reading A Nation of Laws Peter Charles Hoffer, 2010 An introduction to and meditation on the key concepts history evolution complexities and importance of law in our nation's 233 year existence
