magical and the human world Even as those in the city around her led by Tasha a charismatic doctor who fled to the city from the coast with her wife and other refugees struggle to keep everyone alive Heather constantly looks to the mountain drawn by love by fear by the desire for rescue She is torn in two by her awareness of what unleashed the meteor shower and what is coming for the few survivors once the green and living earth makes a final reckoning of the usefulness of human life and finds it wanting At times devastating but ultimately redemptive Amanda Leduc s fable for our uncertain times reminds us that the most important things in life aren t things at all but rather the people we want by our side at the end of the world
