Levine,2015-08-14 A guide to promoting literacy in the digital age With young children gaining access to a dizzying array of games videos and other digital media will they ever learn to read The answer is yes if they are surrounded by adults who know how to help and if they are introduced to media designed to promote literacy instead of undermining it Tap Click Read gives educators and parents the tools and information they need to help children grow into strong passionate readers who are skilled at using media and technology of all kinds print digital and everything in between In Tap Click Read authors Lisa Guernsey and Michael H Levine envision a future that is human centered first and tech assisted second They document how educators and parents can lead a new path to a place they call Readialand a literacy rich world that marries reading and digital media to bring knowledge skills and critical thinking to all of our children This approach is driven by the urgent need for low income children and parents to have access to the same 21st century literacy opportunities already at the fingertips of today's affluent families. With stories from homes, classrooms, and cutting edge tech labs, plus accessible translation of new research and compelling videos, Guernsey and Levine help educators, parents, and America's leaders tackle the questions that arise as digital media plays a larger and larger role in children's lives starting in their very first years of life. Tap Click Read includes an analysis of the exploding app marketplace and provides useful information on new review sites and valuable curation tools. It shows what to avoid and what to demand in today's apps and e-books, as well as what to seek in community preschools, elementary schools, and libraries. Peppered with the latest research from fields as diverse as neuroscience and behavioral economics, and richly documented examples of best practices from schools and early childhood programs around the country, Tap Click Read will show you how to promote the adult-child interactions that help kids grow into strong readers. Learn how to use digital media to build a foundation for reading and success. Discover new tools that open up avenues for creativity, critical thinking, and knowledge building that today's children need. The book's accompanying website keeps you updated on new research and provides vital resources to help parents, schools, and community organizations.

Practical Farm Ideas Quarterly, 2004 Into the Minds of Babes Lisa Guernsey, 2007-09-11 A good news book for parents. Into the Minds of Babes presents an engaging examination of the current research into how exposure to television and other screen time affects babies and toddlers. California Preschool Curriculum Framework: Social-emotional development. Language and literacy. English-language development. Mathematics California. Child Development Division, California. Department of Education, 2010 Hothouse Kids Alissa Quart, 2006 Critically acclaimed author Alissa Quart breaks the news about an issue that will be of urgent concern to parents and educators as well as adult readers with gifted kids: the dilemma of the gifted child. While studies show that children who are superior learners do benefit from enriched early education, the intensely competitive lives of America's gifted and talented kids do have risks. The pressure can have long-term effects in adult life, from debilitating perfectionism to performance anxiety and lifelong feelings of failure. Quart traveled the country to research the many ways in which the current craze to produce gifted kids and prodigies has gone too far. Exploring the overhyped world of baby edutainment and better baby early education programs, she takes a hard look at the claims about educational toys and baby sign language. Taking readers inside the ever more elite world of IQ testing, she reveals the proliferation of new categories of giftedness, including terrifyingly and severely gifted, and examines the true value of such testing. Profiling the explosion of kid competitions from Scrabble™ and chess to child preaching, she uncovers the dangers of such heated pressure to excel so early in life and exposes the prodigy hunters who search science and math fairs for teens to hire for Wall Street investment firms. Critiquing the professionalization of play, she visits with kids who've been identified as prodigies, from a four-year-old painter whose works sell for 300,000 to an eight-year-old professional skateboarder who is backed by nine corporate sponsors. Surveying expert assessments of the necessary role of unstructured play in child development she warns about the disappearance of recess and the pitfalls of children's overstuffed schedules today She also profiles the growing divide in opportunities for wealthy kids versus those from middle and lower income families who are losing out as gifted programs at public schools are gutted in the wake of the No Child Left Behind Act How should parents and educators draw the line How much enrichment is too much and how much is too little What are we doing to our gifted kids Alissa Quart's penetrating in depth examination provides a much needed wake up call that will spark a national debate about this urgent issue Today's Moms Mary Ann Zoellner, Alicia Ybarbo, 2009-04-07 Two producers of Today share their experiences and wisdom on baby's first year along with priceless advice and anecdotes from the anchors and experts on America's number one morning show Being a new mother can be extremely nerve racking and exhausting and many moms find parenting advice comfort and humor on the Today show Now all that advice and more is collected in Today's Moms a one stop guide to everything a new mother needs to know about her baby's first year from the best breastfeeding products to reclaiming fun and intimacy with her partner after the baby Full of behind the scenes stories with moms and experts Today's Moms provides the most up to date news and information with easy entertaining ways to help mothers keep their sanity And it's all medically reviewed by NBC medical experts Dr Nancy Snyderman and Dr Tanya Benenson Contributors include Meredith Vieira Ann Curry Matt Lauer Al Roker Kathie Lee Gifford and many others Written in a friendly and accessible tone with straightforward honest advice and expert information Today's Moms will help all moms feel more confident about their first year of motherhood Shelf-esteem Sandra Kitain, 2008 Contains books and programming ideas for librarians teachers and parents to help children develop self esteem Grown Up Digital: How the Net Generation is Changing Your World Don Tapscott, 2009 Comments on the transformative impact of the digital age Mother Goose on the Loose Betsy Diamant-Cohen, 2006 Let Mother Goose on the loose in your library and jump start children's learning and brain development Here are activities that will build motor music social and preliteracy skills in infants and toddlers Mother Goose on the Loose incorporates books rhymes fingerplays flannelboard stories music dance and child parent interaction into dynamic programs that will bring whole families into the library Award winning program creator Betsy Diamant Cohen offers this valuable manual that helps librarians and educators create their own Mother Goose on the Loose MGOL routines with ready to use plans and materials The guide features ten MGOL programs each one with complete scripts and instructions In addition you'll find planning and scheduling sheets for implementing the program and instructions for designing your own original MGOL sessions Chapters outline the learning process for infants and toddlers including the importance of repetition ritual play reading movement and music provide tips for communicating with parents and suggest ways to incorporate books instruments and props Diamant Cohen includes suggestions for expanding and evaluating the MGOL program and a list of FAQs and answers for sharing with parents and administrators The companion CD ROM features all of the rhymes and songs as well as a complete Mother Goose on the Loose script La familia es primero Phillip C.
