Fifth World Of Forster Bennett Portrait:

The Fifth World of Forster Bennett Vincent Crapanzano, 2003-01-01 It is told that the ancestors of the Navajos journeyed through four worlds to reach the fifth or present one The pressing complexities and underlying wonder of their fifth world of modern reservation life are portrayed in this classic ethnographic account by Vincent Crapanzano As a young inexperienced anthropologist Crapanzano spent a summer with a Navajo man he calls Forster Bennett In his fifties Bennett was raised during the early reservation years fought in the South Pacific in the Second World War and like many carried a deep but not always openly expressed resentment toward whites Crapanzano's honest and gritty account of his time with Bennett and Bennett's community reveals a stark portrait of the flat slow quality of reservation life where boredom and poverty coexist with age old sacred rituals and the varying ways that Navajos react and adjust to changes in their culture
