Figural Realism Studies In The Mimesis Effect:

Figural Realism Hayden V. White, 2020 In Figural Realism White collects eight interrelated essays primarily concerned with the treatment of history in recent literary critical discourse History is not only an object we can study White observes it is also and even primarily a certain kind of relationship to the past mediated by a distinctive kind of written discourse It is because historical discourse is actualized in its culturally significant form as a specific kind of writing that we may consider the relevance of literary theory to both the theory and the practice of historiography Jacket Figural Realism Hayden White, 2020-03-03 Originally published in 1998 In his earlier books such as Tropics of Discourse and The Content of the Form Hayden White focused on the conventions of historical writing and on the ordering of historical consciousness In Figural Realism White collects eight interrelated essays primarily concerned with the treatment of history in recent literary critical discourse History is not only an object we can study writes White it is also and even primarily a certain kind of relationship to the past mediated by a distinctive kind of written discourse It is because historical discourse is actualized in its culturally significant form as a specific kind of writing that we may consider the relevance of literary theory to both the theory and the practice of historiography Haunted Families and Temporal Normativity in Hispanic Horror Films Charles St-Georges, 2018-04-20 This book examines the interactions between ghosts and families in three recent horror films from the Spanish speaking world that rather than explicitly referencing recent political violence speak to the societal conditions and everyday normative violence that serve as preconditions for political violence This study deconstructs intersectional processes of racially and sexually normative subject formation and its oppositional other ghostly erasure that are framed by a common temporal logic wherein full citizenship is contingent upon a nation's dominant notions of contemporaneity and whether individuals properly inhabit prescriptive timelines of reproductivity St Georges's study explores ways in which ghosts and families are manipulated in each national imaginary as a strategy for negotiating volatility within symbolic order a tactic that can either naturalize or challenge normative discourses As a literary and cinematic trope ghosts are particularly useful vehicles for the exploration of national imaginaries and the dominant or competing cultural attitudes towards a country's history and thus the articulation of a present political reality The rhetorical figure of the family is also key in this process as a mechanism for expressing national allegories for expressing generational anxieties about a nation's relationship to time and for organizing societies and social subjects as such interpellating them into or excluding them from national imaginaries By proposing these specific coordinates ghosts and families and by mapping their relationship between Spain and Latin America Troubling Timelines proposes a study of a temporal framework that besides bridging the traditional area studies divide across the Atlantic creates a space for interdisciplinary inquiry while also responding to increasing demand for studies that focus on intersectionality Philosophy of History After Hayden White Robert Doran, 2013-06-06 This anthology of new essays by an international group of preeminent scholars explores the ground breaking work of Hayden White whose thought beginning with his seminal Metahistory 1973 has revolutionized the way we think about the philosophy of history historiography narrative and the relation between history and literature Representing a variety of disciplines and approaches the contributions to this volume testify to the far reaching effects and significance of White s philosophy of history Individual essays relate White s ideas to contemporary art cognitive studies Heideggerian hermeneutics experimental history Kant s transcendental philosophy analytic philosophy of history Marxist cultural theory the Kantian sublime and American academic historiography A substantial introduction by the editor traces the genesis of White s philosophy of history situating it with respect to both the Anglo American and Continental traditions The volume also features a previously unpublished essay by White which offers a concise overview of his later thought and a Comment written specifically for this volume in which White revisits the question of the philosophy of history

The Ethics of Narrative Hayden White, 2022-08-15 Hayden White is widely considered to be the most influential historical theorist of the twentieth century The Ethics of Narrative brings together nearly all of White s uncollected essays from the last two decades of his life revealing a lesser known side of White that of the public intellectual From modern patriotism and European identity to Hannah Arendt s writings on totalitarianism from the idea of the historical museum and the theme of melancholy in art history to trenchant readings of Leo Tolstoy and Primo Levi the first volume of The Ethics of Narrative shows White at his most engaging topical and capacious Expertly introduced by editor Robert Doran who lucidly explains the major themes sources and frames of reference of White s thought this volume features five previously unpublished lectures as well as more complete versions of several published essays thereby giving the reader unique access to White s late thought In addition to historical theorists and intellectual historians The Ethics of Narrative will appeal to students and scholars across the humanities in such fields as literary and cultural studies art history and visual studies and media studies

Storia della storiografia , 2008 John, Jesus, and History Paul N. Anderson, Felix Just, Tom Thatcher, 2007 V 4 Jesus Remembered in the Johannine Situation addresses the narrative development of the Johannine corpus over as many as seven decades Contributors connect how Jesus is presented in the Fourth Gospel to how the memory of his ministry is developed in Palestine during the earliest period 30 70 CE in Asia Minor in the later first century 70 100 CE and in the main and alternative streams of post Johannine early Christianity 100 CE and later back cover

The Book of Portraiture Steve Tomasula, 2006 The Book of Portraiture is a postmodern epic in writing and images A desert nomad struggles at the close of the ancient world to inscribe himself into life and centuries later a Renaissance artist attempts to overcome his lowly origins by painting nobility Throughout Steve Tomasula s arresting tour de force human beings seek to become what they are by representing it An early twentieth century psychoanalyst in search of a cure for sexual neurosis discovers the reflection of his own yearning in a female client and an accidental community of twenty first century image makers connects the pixels to bring their group portrait into focus Across a canvas that spans centuries the several narrators of this novel look through the lens of their own time and portray objects of desire in paint dreams photography electronic data and genetic code Together their portraits comprise a collage of styles and habits of mind The Book of Portraiture is a novel about the irrepressible impulse to picture ourselves and how through this picturing we continually re create what it means to be human Once again Steve Tomasula has fabricated an incisive and sly commentary on art s way of being in the world and the manner in which it intersects and conflicts with our perceptions Virtuoso in its execution and sublime in its discernment The Book of Portraiture is an able continuation of Tomasula s ongoing project to redraw the boundaries of contemporary fiction Christopher Sorrentino Tomasula s five interlocking chapters cross continents and centuries and aesthetic sensibilities to build to a dazzling and dizzying whole The Book of Portraiture is one of those rare books that manage to be at once emotionally and theoretically satisfying Brian Evenson Think of Swift Groddeck Lautreamont and George Carlin conversing together in a large wastebin up to their chins in 21st century sweepings and you will begin to have an idea of Tomasula s very funny very smart and downright scary epic vision Rikki Ducornet Steve Tomasula is the author of the acclaimed novels IN OZ Ministry of Whimsy and VAS An Opera in Flatland Among the venues where his short fiction has appeared are McSweeney s and The Iowa Review where he received the distinguished Iowa Prize His writings on body art and culture have appeared in Leonardo and numerous arts journals Misanthropoedics Robert Farquhar Darcy,2003 The Prose of the World Sara Danus,2006 Toward a Missionary Poetics in Late Ming China Sher-Shiueh Li,1999 A New Generation of African Writers Brenda Cooper,2008 Brenda Cooper examines the work of the new generation of African writers who have placed migration as central to their writing There is a new interest among publishers in New York and London in books by writers of African origin These authors have often grown up or passed their early adult years out of Africa The Orange Prize for Fiction was awarded in London 2007 to Chimamanda Ngozie Adichie s Half of a Yellow Sun and the Caine Prize for African Writing has introduced new writers such as Leila Aboulela Biyi Bandele and Chimamanda Adichie herself to agents and publishers This examination of the extraordinary work which has recently appeared is therefore very timely Migration is a central theme of much African fiction written in English Here Brenda Cooper tracks the journeys undertaken by a new generation of African writers their protagonists and the solid objects that populate their fiction to depict the material realities of their multiple worlds and languages The book explores the uses to which the English language is put in order to understand these worlds It demonstrates how these writers have contested the dominance of colonising metaphors The writers challenge is to find an English that can effectively express their many lives languages and identities BRENDA COOPER is Director of the Centre for African Studies and a Professor in the Department of English Language and Literature at the University of Cape Town Southern Africa South Africa Botswana Namibia Lesotho and Swaziland University of KwaZulu Natal Press PB Culture and Power J. academic life The Mirrorwork of Tibetan Religious Historians Zeff Bjerken,2001 Sappho in the Making Dimitrios Yatromanolakis,2007 This book offers the first interdisciplinary and in depth study of the cultural practices and ideological paradigms that conditioned the politics of the reading of Sappho s songs in the early and most pivotal stages of her reception In this wide ranging synthesis Dimitrios Yatromanolakis investigates visual representations and ancient texts in their synchronic and diachronic multilayeredness to trace the discursive nexuses that defined the making of Sappho in the late archaic classical and early Hellenistic periods Offering a systematic analysis of the contextual cues provided by vase paintings and focusing on the sociocultural institution of the symposion this book explores the intricate modes of the assimilation of Sappho s poetry into diverse social aesthetic and performative contexts Drawing on a number of disciplines including archaeology papyrology and anthropology Sappho in the Making articulates a new methodological Problematik on the reception of archaic Greek socioaesthetic cultures Europe and the Other and Europe as the Other Bo Stråth,2000 This book contributes to the debate on what Europe is by demonstrating the complexities and contradictions inherent in the concept They are seen most clearly when Europe is viewed from a long historical perspective During the closing decades of the twentieth century Europe emerged as one of the main points of reference in both the cultural and the political constructs of the global community An obsession with the concept of European identity is readily identifiable European identity is usually seen in relation to national identity either in an uneasy opposition to it that is as an alternative to the nation or in a situation in which it overlaps with and complements the nation The structure of national identity is projected onto European identity and this projection has an ideological underpinning for no projection is ever non interested or non ideological This process of identity construction provokes searching questions which the book aims to address At the same time the book explores the opportunities offered by the concept of Europe to see how it may be used in the construction of the future The approach is one of both deconstruction and reconstruction The issue of Europe is closely related in the book to more general issues relating to the cultural construction of community The book should therefore be seen as the companion of Myth and Memory in the Construction of Community which also is published by PIE Peter Lang in the series Multiple Europes Clio ,2005 Dance Discourses Centre national de la danse (France),2007 Focusing on politics gender and identities a group of international dance scholars provide a broad overview of methodological approaches and how they can be applied to the study of ballet and modern dance "Give Me a Day, and I Will Give You the World" Dun Wang,2008 "When the Old Time Go" Lynette Marie Ubois,2000
