assonance The four different types of sentences imperative declarative interrogative and exclamatory will also be studied and students will be able to differentiate between sentences written in the first person second person and third person In addition easy to understand definitions examples and colorful illustrations are provided to familiarize students with the terms personification onomatopoeia simile metaphor hyperbole idiom irony oxymoron acronym antonym and synonym Moreover students will learn how to distinguish between the often confused words homonyms homophones homographs and heteronyms Note that the pages that teach these language terms also provide the correct pronunciation and that there is a pronunciation guide included in the book Besides the terms mentioned above students will learn when can should be used in a sentence in place of may and when I should be used in place of me Several reproducible worksheets and a practice test are also available for individual practice to assess student learning or for a teacher to use for direct instruction purposes on the classroom screen The practice test is included towards the end of the book and is also available online as a computer based test You can access the test free of charge by visiting the website of Habakkuk Educational Materials When the student feels confident or at the teacher s discretion there is also a computer based unit test they can take to test their comprehension over the book s content This book could be introduced to students as early as the first grade and used throughout elementary middle and high school Actual testing of the content could begin as early as the 3rd grade For more information or to contact Habakkuk Educational Materials please visit the business website at <https://www.habakkuk.net>

11+ Guide to Figurative Language (Revised) Elaine C. R. Heckingbottom, 2016-07-31 Aimed particularly at parents in the CSSE region who want to help their child to achieve the magic score which will result in them being allocated a place at their chosen selective school In today s increasingly competitive society preparation for the 11 has become incredibly tough whichever education authority area you live in For these children it involves studying many concepts that they will not have faced before Many of the questions are extremely hard and not all the elements of the exam can be fully prepared for however even in the areas of the country where they now claim the exams cannot be tutored there are still many tools that you can give your children to help their preparation and one of those tools is a knowledge of the different aspects of Figurative Language Introducing metaphors and similes personification and pathetic fallacy alliteration idioms onomatopoeia hyperbole irony and oxymoron in a way that they will be easily remembered this book is a great introduction to Figurative Language for children from Upper Key Stage 2 to the end of Key Stage 3 9 to 14 year olds
