Disfiguring Art Architecture Religion Religion And Postmodernism Series:

Disfiguring Mark C. Taylor, 1992 Disfiguring is constructive or perhaps more accurately reconstructive By exploring the religious dimensions of twentieth century painting and architecture he shows how the visual arts continue to serve as a rich resource for the theological imagination About Religion Mark C. Taylor, 1999-07 Religion Mark C Taylor maintains is most interesting where it is least obvious From global financial networks to the casinos of Las Vegas from images flickering on computer terminals to steel sculpture material culture bears unexpected traces of the divine In a world where the economies of faith are obscure yet pervasive Taylor shows that approaching religion directly is less instructive than thinking about it Traveling from high culture to pop culture and back again About Religion approaches cyberspace and Las Vegas through Hegel and Kant and reads Melville's The Confidence Man through the film Wall Street As astonishing juxtapositions and associations proliferate formerly uncharted territories of virtual culture disclose theological vestiges showing that faith in contemporary culture is as unavoidable as it is elusive The most accessible presentation of Taylor's revolutionary ideas to date About Religion gives us a dazzling and disturbing vision of life at the end of the old and beginning of the new millennium

Religion & Contemporary Art Anthony Padgett, 2010-02 These essays explore the relationship between art and religion The first part 2001-2002 is essays about The Ism where 1994-9 Padgett united religious and spiritual perspectives by uniting the art forms appropriate to them The second part is essays from 2002-2005 when Padgett studied at Wimbledon School of Art London for an MA in Theory of Contemporary Art and Performance Padgett looks at artists Damien Hirst Thomas Hirschhorn Anton Artaud Jake and Dinos Chapman Brothers Guillermo Gomez Pena etc and develops the idea of Postmodern Religious Art His program of uniting the art forms is progressed by uniting the specific material forms of religions in semi irony with the profane whilst keeping the sacred as of highest importance The final part is the questionnaire that Padgett submitted to the Employment Tribunals giving the main arguments behind his claim that the Tate Galleries were exercising religious discrimination in the way they selected artworks Art in America Frank Jewett Mather, Frederic Fairchild Sherman, 1992-07

Preaching and the Other Ronald J. Allen, 2008-11-01 Preaching and the Other introduces the reader to six major themes characteristic of the postmodern era that are important for preaching and explains their implications Themes discussed include perception as interpretation deconstruction otherness transgression pluralism and the importance of apologetics Proceedings and Addresses of the American Philosophical Association American Philosophical Association, 1992 List of members in v 1

England, H. Frederick Felice, Stuart Kendall, 2005-06-30 An introduction and evaluation of contemporary approaches to theology Postmodern Theologies sets out to discern movements shaping the postmodern study of religion in a unique collaborative venture born of a postgraduate seminar at Florida State University While some might say that theology after the death of God is like biology after the end of life a discipline without a subject Postmodern Theologies identifies four general patterns of postmodernisms in theology today constructive theologies with Helmut Peukert David Ray Griffin and David Tracy cited as examples postmodernisms of dissolution Thomas J J Altizer Mark C Taylor and Edith Wyschogrod postliberal theologies George Lindbeck and communal praxis exemplified by Gustavo Gutierrez and other Latin American theologians and James Wm McClendon and Sharon Welch among North Americans These theologies eschew debates on traditional religious foundations to define true religion as the result of rather than the impetus to living one's beliefs As these disparate approaches to theology are not directly comparable the final chapter of Postmodern Theologies instead analyzes how each one accounts for the plurality of religions Exploring the postmodern strategies for coping with one of the most difficult questions in any theological age offers a fascinating way to assess their inherent strengths and weaknesses The Craft of Religious Studies Jon R. Stone, 2016-07-27 A collection of essays by distinguished scholars in the academic study of religion The Craft of Religious Studies represents the variety of research and analytical methods that researchers employ when examining religious phenomena whether personally or socially expressed Autobiographical in cast this collection points to diversity of approaches in the academic study of religion and highlights the interdisciplinary nature of the field While the ways scholars approach the study of religion in human culture vary the common ground among them as seen in these fourteen contributions remains their quest for understanding more so than the paths toward understanding they have chosen Art Journal, 1960 Blueprint, 1993 Artbibliographies Modern, 1993 Abstracts of journal articles books essays exhibition catalogs dissertations and exhibition reviews The scope of ARTbibliographies Modern extends from artists and movements beginning with Impressionism in the late 19th century up to the most recent works and trends in the late 20th century Photography is covered from its invention in 1839 to the present A particular emphasis is placed upon adding new and lesser known artists and on the coverage of foreign language literature Approximately 13 000 new entries are added each year Published with title LOMA from 1969 1971 The publishers weekly, 1992 The Future Without a Past John Paul Russo, 2005 Argues that technological imperatives like rationalization universalism monism and autonomy have transformed the humanities and altered the relation between humans and nature Examines technology and its impact on education historical memory and technological and literary values in criticism and theory concluding with an analysis of the fiction of Don DeLillo Provided by publisher Lingua Franca, 1995 Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff, R R Bowker Publishing, 1996-09 After God Mark C. Taylor, 2008-09-15 Religion Mark C Taylor argues in After God is more complicated than either its defenders or critics think and indeed is much more influential than any of us realize Our world Taylor maintains is shaped by religion even when it is least obvious Faith and value he insists are unavoidable and inextricably interrelated for believers and nonbelievers alike The first comprehensive theology of culture since the pioneering work of Paul Tillich After God redefines religion for our contemporary age This volume is a radical reconceptualization of religion and Taylor s most pathbreaking work yet bringing together various strands of theological argument and cultural analysis four decades in the making Praise for Mark C Taylor The distinguishing feature of Taylor s career is a fearless or perhaps reckless orientation to the new and to whatever challenges orthodoxy Taylor s work is playful perverse rarefied ingenious and often brilliant New York Times Magazine Picturing Cultural Values in Postmodern America William G. Doty, 1995 Looking to poetry novels myths painting and cinematic images this interdisciplinary collection of essays examines cultural significance and value in America s postmodern society Postmodernist Culture Steven Connor, 1997-01-23 This 2nd edition of Postmodernist Culture considers the work of Lyotard and Jameson and the way modern theories are impinging on more areas of culture including the law music dance ecology technology ethnography and spatial theories Whitaker's Books in Print , 1998
