Interpretation of Law in the Global World: From Particularism to a Universal Approach Joanna Jemielniak, Przemyslaw Miklaszewicz, 2010-04-08 Capturing the Change Universalising Tendencies in Legal Interpretation Joanna Jemielniak and Przemyslaw Miklaszewicz International and supranational integration on the European continent as well as the harmonisation of the rules of international trade and the accompanying development and global popularity of the resolution of commercial disputes through arbitration constantly exerts a considerable influence on modern legal systems The sources of each of these phenomena are different and their action is dissimilar Each can be described as reaching either from the top to the bottom through the direct involvement of interested States and consequently affecting their internal legal systems international and supranational integration harmonisation of trade regulations through public international law instruments or bottom up as a result of activity by private parties leading to the achievement of uniform practices and standards arbitration lex mercatoria Nonetheless they both enrich national legal cultures and contribute to transgressing the limits of national local particularisms in creating interpreting and applying the law The aim of this book is to demonstrate how these processes have influenced the interpretation of law how they have shaped the methods and techniques of the interpretation and with what consequences for the outcomes of the interpretative procedures In assessing the extent of this influence due regard must be paid to the fact that the interpretation of law is not in principle directly determined by the provisions of law itself

International Business Law and Its Environment Richard Schaffer, Beverley Earle, Filiberto Agusti, 2005 This text is intended for use in courses as International Business Law International Business Transactions or the Law of International trade and Investment The text emphasizes both private and public law Pref

The Comparative Law Yearbook of International Business Dennis Campbell, 2010-12-22 This edition of the Comparative Law Yearbook of International Business provides a general examination of issues vital to the world's economic recovery. In the field of company law, practitioners examine changes in Russia's corporate law and the new Ukrainian law governing joint stock companies. In the area of competition law, lawyers review Serbia and Bulgaria's new laws on the protection of competition and the private enforcement of Articles 101 and 102 in Europe's national courts. Dispute resolution occupies two chapters: one dealing with best practices for drafting arbitration clauses and the other set aside recognition and enforcement of private commercial arbitration awards. A further two chapters treat employment and labor matters relating to distribution and commercial representation indemnity upon termination and processing personal data in the employment context of Hungary. In the area of financial services, practitioners from five jurisdictions deal with fiduciary duty, the European Commission's proposed Directive on Alternative Investment Fund Managers, Swiss disclosure rules on significant shareholdings, restructuring and refinancing routes for mortgage secured debt in Spain, and insurance laws and regulations in Nigeria. Foreign investment is examined by two authors reporting on 2008 and 2009 developments in investment treaty disputes and foreign investment in Indonesia. Intellectual property issues are reviewed in chapters relating to the use of intellectual property as collateral in secured financing and intellectual property licensing in Canada. Finally, lawyers treat a variety of other issues including the tax law of Liechtenstein, European Union-Israel trade in the automobile sector, insolvency risk and creditors' rights in Peru, the modernizing of trust law in Hong Kong, and bridging cultural differences in international transactions.

West's Business Law Kenneth W. Clarkson, 2001. This text is used at more colleges and universities than any other business law text.
