Fundamentals Of Sport Marketing Sport Management Library 2nd Edition:

Fundamentals of Sport Marketing Brenda G. Pitts, David Kent Stotlar, 2007 Fundamentals of Sport Marketing has become the standard by which other textbooks in the field are measured and the third edition of this text once again raises that standard. The numerous updates and new material added throughout the book are based on the most up to date research and developments that have taken place in sport marketing, sport management and the sport industry. As a result, Fundamentals of Sport Marketing Third Edition is the most current, contemporary and indispensable book on sport marketing that is available. To supplement the rich information in the textbook, case studies written about current topics relevant to each chapter have been added to this edition of Fundamentals of Sport Marketing. In addition, the appendices contain directories of sport businesses, associations, trade publications and academic journals, abstracts from recent research in sport marketing and several examples of sport marketing research instruments. The authors, Dr Brenda G Pitts and Dr David K Stotlar, have unparalleled experience consulting and working in the industry and are both well known and respected across the globe. They have authored three workbooks, all published by Fitness Information Technology, that serve as excellent companions to this text: Case Studies in Sport Marketing, Developing Successful Sport Marketing Plans, Second Edition, and Developing Successful Sport Sponsorship Plans, Second Edition. International Journal of Sport Finance, 2007 Economics of Sport Mark J. Eschenfelder, Ming Li, 2007. Written for students with some exposure to economics concepts and analysis, this book defines the sport industry and reviews economic concepts before examining in detail such central issues as benefits and costs, the theory of the firm, profit maximisation as a major motivator and alternative motivators in non-profit organisations.

Ethics and Morality in Sport Management Joy Theresa DeSensi, Danny Rosenberg, 2003. This book represents a landmark effort to bring into focus the moral and ethical issues associated with the management of sport and sport organisations. Within a sport context, Joy DeSensi and Danny Rosenberg have critically examined a view shared by virtually all business managers and scholars that ethics and morality in management is not only good for all concerned but a necessity in terms of the bottom line. When Sport Meets Business Ulrik Wagner, Rasmus K. Storm, Klaus Nielsen, 2016-10-19.

Written by European professors and focusing on the specificities of European sport, When Sport Meets Business analyses the growing commercialisation of professional sport in recent years and explains how it has developed into a major global industry. Structured into four sections, the book covers the key issues in the Business of professional sport: The New Sport Environment, Analysing the consequences of increasing commercialisation by looking at the multi-billion dollar sports goods industry, the effects of globalisation and how commercial influences have made running one of Europe's most popular sports, Sport Marketing and Media, Investigating the role media and marketing has in commercialisation with emphasis on the growth of sponsorship, media rights in European club football and the growing influence of social media in sport, and Sport and Finance. Relating to the economics of European sport, there is an investigation into the financial policies employed by

European Football clubs specifically in regards to the Financial Fair Play regulations and the topical issue of high level corruption Sporting Events Looking at additional factors that affect professional sport highlighting the impact an Olympic Games can have on a host city and the longevity of an Olympic urban legacy The authors have included insightful case studies from across the continent including anti RB Leipzig media campaigns in Germany financial policies at England s Chelsea FC French Tennis Federation corporate responsibility Media rights in Spain s LaLiga the sponsorship viability for Ukraine s Klitschko brothers and the case of Denmark s Viborg F F Suitable for undergraduate and postgraduate students in sport related courses including sport management sport economics sport marketing and the sociology of sport

Media Relations in Sport Allan Hall, William Nichols, 2007 Provides a framework for understanding the connection between the informational and commercial sides of sports information management Part I addresses the working relationships between journalists and sport organisations as they have evolved over the years Part II defines the various roles of sports information specialists along with their duties in disseminating information It provides practical guidelines on everything from writing press releases to preparing media guides to organising events such as news conferences and media days Part III addresses the responsibilities of sports information professionals How to organise and manage game coverage what to do to promote special events ranging from awards banquets to tournaments and how to develop publicity campaigns Part IV confronts the ethics of these formalised working relationships and the ideology they perpetuate Media Relations in Sport is for students in sport management as well as students in journalism public relations or communications Each chapter contains a glossary of terms discussion questions suggested exercises role playing activities and extensive notes
