New Testament Textual Criticism and Exegesis Joël Delobel, 2002 For many years Professor Joel Delobel has served as a member of the Department of Biblical Studies of the Faculty of Theology K U Leuven 1969 2001 His research has tended to focus on Luke Acts Pauline Literature and especially Textual Criticism he is a member of Das Institut für Neutestamentliche Textforschung Münster His friends and colleagues in the Department of Biblical Studies of the Faculty of Theology and elsewhere have honoured him with a Festschrift on the occasion of his retirement The congratulatory volume deals with an issue that is dear to him the mutual link between textual criticism and exegesis which he himself once referred to as the Siamese twins A number of international scholars in the field of textual criticism have treated different aspects of this relationship Some contributions are of a more general nature B Aland deals with the criteria used to judge the value of smaller New Testament Papyrus fragments J Lust compares the textual critical investigation of the Old Testament to that of the New W L Petersen studies the earliest form of the text of the Gospel Other contributions are related to a specific text Mt 21 28 32 J K Elliott Mk 16 8 C Focant Lk 7 42b T Baarda Lk 22 43 44 C M Tuckett Lk 24 12 F Neirynck Jn 4 1 G Van Belle Jn 12 31 M E Boismard Jn 16 13 R Bieringer Acts 15 20 29 21 25 C B Amphoux Rom 16 7 E J Epp Rom 16 25 27 R F Collins 1 Cor 2 1 V Koperski The Epistle of James D C Parker Rev 13 9 10 J Lambrecht and Rev 13 18 J N Birdsall J Verheyden deals with the New Testament text in the 2nd Century more specifically in the writings of Justin The Chester Beatty Biblical Papyri at Ninety Garrick Vernon Allen, Usama Ali Mohamed Gad, Kelsie Gayle Rodenbiker, Anthony Philip Royle, Jill Unkel, 2023-05-08 Despite the significant work carried out on the text transmission materiality and scribal habits preserved in the Chester Beatty Biblical Papyri since their acquisition by Beatty ninety years ago in 1931 these early copies of Jewish scripture and the New Testament have for the most part belonged primarily to textual critics The goal of this book is to resituate this important collection of manuscripts in broader contexts examining their significance in conversation with papyrology as a discipline in the context of other ancient literary traditions preserved on papyri and in discussion with the intellectual and cultural history of collecting colonialism and scholarly rhetoric The Chester Beatty Biblical Papyri and other papyrological collection with which they are inextricably bound remind us of the critical value of examining old manuscripts afresh in their historical scholarly and intellectual contexts These studies are relevant for all scholars who work with manuscripts and ancient texts of any variety Perspectives on New Testament Textual Criticism, Volume 2 Eldon Jay Epp, 2020-11-30 Eldon Jay Epp's second volume of collected essays consists of articles previously published during 2006 2017 All treat aspects of the New Testament textual criticism but focus on historical and methodological issues relevant to constructing the earliest attainable text of New Testament writings More specific emphasis falls upon the nature of textual transmission and the text critical process and heavily on the criteria employed in establishing that earliest available text Moreover textual grouping is examined at length and prominent is the current approach to textual variants not approved for the constructed text for they have stories to tell regarding theological ethical and real life issues as the early Christian churches sought to work out their own status practices and destiny The Text of the New Testament Edward D. Andrews, 2012-02-03 This book will be dealing with the Greek text of the New Testament Textual criticism is the study of a group of manuscripts especially of the Bible or works of literature in order to determine which reading is the original Many who have never covered this area before do not realize that textual studies have to be considered before all other areas of biblical studies How can a translation of the text begin before establishing the text as the original How can the interpretation of the text begin before establishing the text as the original I approach this book by assuming that every reader has no knowledge of the subject matter of textual studies In other words I will be defining and explaining many things Most churchgoers and laypersons in all likelihood have never read a book on textual criticism This does not mean I will not address the deeper things because I will just on a popular level
