An Assessment of Contemporary Models of Forgiveness Célestin Musekura, 2010 Celestin Musekura had just begun doctoral studies in Dallas when he learned that many of his own family members had been killed in a wave of genocide reprisals back home in Rwanda Revenge would have been understandable but he said I have preached forgiveness and now it is my turn to practice it To my family I say I will pray for those who brutally murdered you and I will care for their children It should come as no surprise that Celestin s understanding of forgiveness well expressed in these pages is restoring communities throughout sub Saharan Africa He knows and practices that of which he speaks This book sets a course for realistic collective transformation

Robert A Pyne Th D Director Peace and Justice Center St Norbert College Book Jacket Forgiveness, Reconciliation, and Restoration Martin William Mittelstadt, Geoffrey W. Sutton, 2010-08-01 Although history is replete with tales of revenge Christian forgiveness provides an alternate response In this volume Pentecostal scholars from various disciplines offer their vision for forgiveness reconciliation and restoration The essayists offer long overdue Pentecostal perspectives through analysis of contemporary theological issues personal testimony and prophetic possibilities for restoration of individual relationships and communities Though Pentecostals remain committed to Spirit empowered witness as recorded in Luke Acts these scholars embrace a larger Lukan vision of Spirit initiated inclusivity marked by reconciliation The consistent refrain calls for forgiveness as an expression of God s love that does not demand justice but rather seeks to promote peace by bringing healing and reconciliation in relationships between people united by one Spirit
