Fort Apache New York's Most Violent Precinct:

Fort Apache Tom Walker, 2009-02-24 OVER THIRTY YEARS AFTER its publication Fort Apache New York's Most Violent Precinct remains the definitive account of the vicious cycle of violence that has gripped urban America over the past century. A swollen head floating down the Bronx River, a junkie murdered for stealing a woman's wig, a French Connection style chase through blind alleys, police barricaded inside their precinct as a wild mob lays siege to the station, and above all, mindless violence that seemed to erupt in profusion for no apparent reason against the cops who faithfully served and cared deeply about the neighborhood that was rapidly imploding. Death of a Bronx Cop Tom Walker, Trinity College Dublin Tom Walker, 2007-10 A fourth generation New York cop whose great grandfather was on the force during the Civil War Draft Riots of 1863 and author of Fort Apache New York's Most Violent Precinct Tom Walker delivers another eye opening look at the life of being a cop in the Bronx. In this ambitious novel based on events from his family's history, Hugh Ryan, a proud third generation New York police officer runs up against the most difficult challenge of his career: battling the institution that has sustained his family for a century, driving him to the brink. Post-Traditional Public Administration Theory David Farmer, 2021-03-22 This book describes what is argued to be the most effective way of doing public administration: thinking. Its aim is to encourage governments to govern fundamentally better in terms of policy and administration. A better understanding of context and identities, imaginization, epistemic pluralism, anti-administration, and the context of economics are examples of what is critical for high effectiveness. The pieces included in this book have been handpicked from the vast academic collection that David Farmer has authored over the last thirty years and which were published in the Journal of Administrative Theory and Praxis and the Journal of Public Administration Education. Collectively, these chapters are intended to help governments use post-traditional public administration theory in order to achieve better praxis. Bronx Hospital Tom Walker, 2013-04 This book is based on my experiences and observations during a most exasperating and frustrating time as a newly hired Director at Bronx Hospital. Sometimes it takes the uninitiated to see the truth. I do not believe that the shock evoked in me upon my arrival as a police lieutenant in the Four One Precinct in 1971 will ever be duplicated. But this came damn close. At Bronx Hospital, it wasn't the shock of Fort Apache's violence and mayhem. This time it was, in many ways, a much more sinister jolt. Most disturbingly, there was a laissez-fair attitude for the routine and outrageous conduct of the staff: the cover-ups, the medical errors, and yes, criminal activity: i.e. assaults, sexual abuse, fraud, reckless endangerment, and so much more. The City in American Cinema Johan Andersson, Lawrence Webb, 2019-06-27 How has American cinema engaged with the rapid transformation of cities and urban culture since the 1960s? And what role have films and film industries played in shaping and mediating the postindustrial city? This collection argues that cinema and cities have become increasingly intertwined in the era of neoliberalism, urban branding, and accelerated gentrification. Examining a wide range of films from Hollywood blockbusters to indie cinema, it considers the complex evolving relationship between moving image cultures and the spaces policies and politics of US cities from New York Los Angeles and Boston to Detroit Oakland and Baltimore The contributors address questions of narrative genre and style alongside the urban contexts of production exhibition and reception discussing films including The Friends of Eddie Coyle 1973 Cruising 1980 Desperately Seeking Susan 1985 King of New York 1990 Inception 2010 Frances Ha 2012 Fruitvale Station 2013 Only Lovers Left Alive 2013 and Doctor Strange 2016

Dynamics of Community Formation Robert W. Compton, Jr., Ho Hon Leung, Yaser Robles, 2017-10-13 This interdisciplinary work discusses the construction maintenance evolution and destruction of home and community spaces which are central to the development of social cohesion By examining how people throughout the world form different communities to establish a sense of home the volume surveys the formation of identity within the context of rapid development global and domestic neoliberal and political governmental policies and various societal pressures The themes of cooperation conflict inclusion exclusion and balance require negotiation between different actors e g the state professional developers social activists and residents as homes and communities develop

Return to Fort Apache Tom Walker, 2011-06-21 More than thirty years ago Tom Walker published Fort Apache New York's Most Violent Precinct introducing the world to the 41 a South Bronx precinct that was home to more murders than the entire city of San Francisco To this day his story about life as police lieutenant in the 41 precinct remains the definitive account of the vicious cycle of violence that gripped urban America in the late twentieth century The battle between criminals and law enforcement did not end in 1971 but massive controversy over the book's publication precluded the release of a sequel until now With Return to Fort Apache Memoir of an NYPD Captain Walker finally tells the rest of his fascinating life story Return to Fort Apache was written to counter the prevailing politically correct opinion that the officers in Fort Apache used their weapons first and their wits last In addition Walker hopes to memorialize the courageous officers he served with in the 41 to remember forever their sacrifices their courage and their daily brushes with death and violence
